WEATHER INDICATIONS.

U. S. Department of Agriculture, Weather Bureau, Toledo, O., June 15, 1892.

There is a storm of slight energy central this morning over the Dakotas, moving eastward. In all other sections of the country the pressure is about normal.

The weather over the upper Mississippi and Missouri Valleys is cloudy and rainy, and in all other sections it is generally fair.

Light rains have fallen during the past 24 hours over the Dakotas, Minnesota and over the upper lakes; in all other districts the rains have been caused by local thunder storms.

The temperature has fallen at stations on Lakes Erie and Huron and over the New England states; elsewhere it has risen or remained stationary. The present warm weather will continue, and cooler weather will only be felt over localities where thunder storms occur, and this will only be for short periods.

Forecast for Toledo and vicinity—On Wednesday, generally fair, with possible thunder storm; slightly cooler. On Thursday rain, slight change in temperature.

E. A. HANNER, Observer.

Forecast for Ohio—Slightly warmer and fair Thursday; southerly winds.

Indiana—Warmer; fair; southerly winds.

Illinois—Warmer; southerly winds, partly cloudy, and showers in northwest portion.

Lower Michigan—Partly cloudy weather and showers; warmer, southerly winds.

Upper Michigan and Wisconsin.—Warmer; partly cloudy and showers; southerly winds.

OHIO DEMOCRATS.

Rousing Convention Held in Columbus.

Buckeye Boys Get Down to Business

And Whoop It Up in Old Time Style.

Strong Address by Chairman Neal.

A Stirring Platform Upon Which the United Democracy Can Do Noble Battle at the Polls.

SOMEWHAT RETROSPECTIVE.

Columbus, O., Jun 15.—(Special.)—A democratic state convention troops many memories before an old stager in politics, though he may be young in years, and younger in inspirations that make politics a round of striving for success, in which office-holding naturally holds no small part.

This is not a large convention that is being held in Columbus, but is an active, earnest gathering of the faithful who are sound upon the issues of the day. In the main the younger element is in control, but the sprinkling of old timers gives zest to the proceedings and reminds one of the contests of past years. Judge May, of Mansfield, is here and Bob Marshall of Dayton, Judge Hunter of Newark, John McMahon of Dayton, Squire Martin of Columbus, Archie McGregor of Canton, Lecky Harper of Mt. Vernon, and a few fathers of democracy like these to associate now with them and to remind us of the old fights of the party in convention, when there was little hope of success at the polls. But we miss the familiar faces of George Rex, Durbin Ward, John McSweeney, George H. Pendleton, Clement L. Vallandigham, Doane Cunningham, Washington McLane, J. J. Farran, George E. Pugh, Henry B. Payne, Rufus P. Ranney, towering names, all, men who commanded the admiration of friends and foes alike. Some are assembled in eternal convention on the other side, though Ranney, Payne and Farran are still on earth, past convention going, but ready to counsel the young warriors of latter day democracy. And the noblest Roman of them all, Allen G. Thurman, is here, in Columbus, his home, though too feeble to take an active part in the deliberations of the convention. The last time Mr. Thurman flourished his famous bandana before a democratic state convention was in 1883, when he made the speech announcing the candidacy of his friend Durbin Ward for governor. He was accorded a splendid ovation at that time, and, at all times since the early sixties, Allen G. Thurman has been regarded as the Nestor of Ohio democracy, an incomparable jurist, and an American statesman of the highest grade. Would that he were a younger man to again be at the front of our contests.

This retrospective mood suggests the spirited campaigns we had on the money question in the seventies. The rag baby element, as the fiatists were called, almost absorbed the democratic party for a time and created factions that jeopardized democratic success more than once. That venerable statesman of another generation, honest old Bill Allen, came from an honorable retiracy at Fruit Hill, near Chillicothe, to lead his party to victory in 1873, the first victory since the election of William Medill, in 1853. So sweeping was the success that the legislature was also carried and Mr. Thurman was returned to the senate.

The money question was the absorbing topic of the five subsequent campaigns, and singular, at that time, and still singular to recall, Governor Allen espoused the side and became the leader of the softs. His nephew, Senator Thurman, led the hard money forces, and it was up and tuck several years which side scored a victory in conventions. The contest not only entered into the declaration of principles, but a candidate for office, if he wanted nothing more than a place on the state board of public works, was obliged to announce his position on the money question. The hard money advocates had the better of all arguments, for they were camped near the ancient landmarks of the party, and the flag of good democracy once raised aloft is never trailed for side issues.

The most valiant, and the most eloquently fearless lieutenant of Senator Thurman in those years was Frank H. Hurd. He had made the study of the question more than a political policy. With him it was the inbred conviction of a principle that could not be wrong. His work in the committee room and upon the floor of the conventions has never been excelled, and seldom equaled. Especially did he appear a giant of democracy and a great apostle of honest doctrine at the state convention in the old exposition building in Cincinnati in 1875. The committee on resolutions was against him, and the convention seemed to be largely opposed to his views, but the very opposition made him stronger, his eloquence more persuasive and his power more potent. He won a notable victory.

The next year the fight was renewed, and the only apparent certain opportunity of nominating Allen G. Thurman for the presidency of the United States was thrown away by the senseless fight in the fight in the Ohio state convention, and subsequently in the Ohio delegation in St. Louis. The sentiment of the party was for Thurman. The delegation was captured by the softs, and Allen's name was substituted for that of Thurman, and he was presented as Ohio's choice for president in the national convention. He received no votes except those cast by the Ohio delegates. The convention declared for hard money, tariff for revenue only, and nominated Samuel J. Tilden. That campaign was the last we heard of the soft money craze in the democratic party in Ohio. Thurman was defeated by his uncle, but even in defeat the old Roman arose victor for principles—principles which the party dare not get far removed from at any time.

The politics of Ohio, which changed with the birth of the republican party, is a chapter of notable campaigns. The old guard of democracy never surrendered, though defeated almost yearly. The veterans passed away and their places were taken by an element of sturdy young manhood. There was an old guard all the time to transmit the faith in purity and encourage successive generations to noble effort. There is an old guard now, and it does not feel old, either, and it carries the old flag and is proud of its record and its history. It is the present of the old democracy, the leaven which never loses its life. It is the spirit of democracy ever present in a land where republicanism flourishes and where the individual is the sovereign, the ruler, the guide, the hope, and the life of the nation.

This is the retrospection which a democratic state convention conjures. It is the lamp of the past which lights the way of the present; which makes democracy an organization of compactness; which links the democracy of the beginning of the century with the politics of the closing decade with chains of pure gold, and sets the rubies and diamonds of principle in the crown of everlasting democracy.

IN SESSION.

The Buckeye Democrats Called to Order in Columbus.

Columbus, O., June 15.—Within that dim, musty, cramped sweat box, dignified by the name of the Grand opera house, and the interior of which has been rendered somewhat attractive for the moment by the judicious use of a profusion of bunting, plants and evergreens, the representatives of the democracy of the Buckeye state assembled this morning for the purpose of naming its delegates to Chicago, and of placing a state ticket in the field.

It will be the last convention in the historic structure that has given to the state so many tickets for victory or for slaughter, for the democracy has rebelled against it as a summer bake oven, and yesterday a mighty protest went up to which future state committees will be compelled to pay heed.

A fine portrait of Ohio's old Roman, veiled with the stars and stripes, was suspended over the center of the stage, and on either side of the proscenium arch were the portraits of Ex-Governor Campbell and Andrew Jackson.

Ex-President Cleveland, however, had apparently been forgotten in this regard and so had David B. Hill, and the many other national democrats who may be expected to figure in Chicago as presidential possibilities.

Nine o'clock was the hour appointed for the commencement of the proceedings, but it was 40 minutes later when "Doc" Norton, of Tiffin, by virtue of his position as chairman of the state central committee, gave the table a resounding whack with his gold-headed cane and requested order.

When this had, with some difficulty, been secured, the delegates and spectators arose while the Divine blessing and guidance was besought by Rev. C. H. Rohe, of the Columbus German Lutheran church.

Hon. James G. Neal, of Hamilton, had been selected by the state committee as temporary chairman and his introduction awakened much enthusiasm.

The Chairman's Speech.

After thanking the convention for the honor he proceeded to deliver a lengthy address, among other things he said:

"Last week while the republican party in wild enthusiasm shouted that marching strain, 'Blaine, Blaine, James G. Blaine,' its officeholders named Harrison. The rank and file were crying for their party hero, and the civil service gave them a man of straw—a postoffice candidate.

"The only logic of this strange anomaly is self-defeat, and democracy has nothing to do but swell her own victory.

"If there is one fact more pronounced than all others in political relations it is that the people are weary of republican national rule and anxious to reinstate democratic men and measures.

"It will be a wholesome day when the executive head of this government is one who is endowed with democratic intuition, aglow with democratic thought, and consecrated to the establishment of democratic principles.

"The spirit of the democracy is awake to the issues of the hour. The great masses, always wedded to the principles of which Thomas Jefferson was the American apostle, are more largely interested in governmental affairs than they have ever been.

"And well may this be, for never have they been called on to make contributions for the enrichment of the privileged classes as they are to-day. Never have they been forced to so 'toil and spin' that others may wear 'purple and fine linen,' and fare sumptuously in idleness.

"The democratic party is the party of the people. It demands that benefits and burdens shall be enjoyed and borne by the people in equity; that the strong, pitiless arm of legislation shall not be invoked and enforced to attain unjust distribution of the profits and labors of trade and commerce, that not one penny shall be taken from the people over and above what is necessary to the economical and honest administration of the government, and that to secure this sum the necessaries of life shall not be taxed.

"The issue, the paramount issue in the coming campaign, will be the reduction of taxation, and, as the 'grandest Roman of them all,' in the campaign of 1888, clearly demonstrated that 'the tariff is a tax,' we have this incontrovertible truth as a shibboleth, with which to win the presidency.

"Within a week the democratic national convention will meet. It would be a waste of time and a work of egotism on my part, were I, in advance of the action of that body, to indulge in predictions, or discuss at length national affairs.

"But this I know, that across the white pennant of democracy and on its shining shield will be written those words of triumph: 'Tariff reform.' This is our battle cry, and who guides the van leads on to victory.

"The democratic party is full of available presidential timber. Its resources in this particular are boundless as the continent.

"If the convention should deem it wise to go to the Empire state for a candidate two figures present themselves prominently. One of these has earned for himself an enviable reputation in the service of his party and country. In sunshine and storm he has been a democrat, in love with its principles and active in their enforcement. Successful in every contest, he is now representing New York in the United States senate. David Bennett Hill is a democrat. (Loud applause.)

"There is another, grand in courage, massive in intellect and true of heart, around whom the multitude gather in wondering and loving admiration. Like a mighty rock in a weary land the people look to him, and feel that there is safety, peace and prosperity where he stands.

"Four years in the most exalted position on earth, demonstrated the truth of his aphorism that 'public office is a public trust,' but Grover Cleveland needs no encomiums from me. (Prolonged applause.)

"But let us look to the possibilities. We have a most attractive son of Ohio, a struggling student he hears the call of his country for her youth to aid in preserving the integrity, and thus perpetuating liberty. He quits his books to shoulder a musket and for years on bloody fields he exhibits the highest qualities of manhood.

"The war over, he battles with poverty and the law (synonymous terms). Treeless in his energy and courageous in his undertakings, he recognizes no difficulties, submits to no disasters, but, with unwavering determination, he presses to the front. Fortune knows him for a conqueror, and quietly lays her treasures at his feet.

"His private interests never interfere with his citizenship, and being a democrat of the highest intelligence, he believes that the prosperity of his country, and the amelioration of his fellow men largely depend on the establishment of his party's principles.

"His knowledge of men and affairs, his executive ability and his great versatility of talent pre-eminently entitle him to the highest consideration.

"Whitelaw Reid, in his humor, spoke the truth when he said that 'while two states claim him, he is bright enough for the whole forty-four.'

"No stronger, no better equipped man can be found than the senator from Ohio—Calvin S. Brice."

The mention of the junior senator from Ohio was the signal for applause again and again repeated, and which was more than equal in volume to that given to Hill and Cleveland combined. There was more applause when, after a lengthy eulogy, he said that "Ohio would like to see as the presidential candidate, its own peerless James E. Campbell."

The speaker also referred in a running vein to Whitney, Flower, Gorman, Russell, Pattison, Gray, Palmer, Morrison, Carlisle and Boies, each name, especially those of Palmer, Gray and Boies, being heartily welcomed.

He closed with the declaration that the democratic convention would meet the expectations of the party and name the next president of the United States.

THE STATE TICKET.

W. A. Taylor Will Lead the Buckeye Forces.

Columbus, June 15.—Col. W. A. Taylor, the veteran newspaper correspondent, of Columbus, was nominated for secretary of state by acclamation.

For supreme judge, Judge William B. Driggs, of Monroe, was named by acclamation for the long term, and Thomas Beer, of Crawford by acclamation for the short term.

IN THIS VICINITY.

The Democrats Preparing for An Aggressive Campaign.

Columbus, June 15.—(Special.)—There never was a more good-natured set of democrats assembled together than is to be found at the state convention this year. Since Monday evening the crowds have been coming in at a lively rate, and last evening enthusiasm was at a high pitch. Shortly after 5 o'clock Senator Brice arrived from Washington and was soon mingling with the boys, a veritable happy time following.

With that modesty which belongs to the senator's make up, to all he expressed himself as not desiring to take a hand in the contest for the delegates-at-large, since the gentlemen from which the selections were to be made were his friends, and he had no intention of issuing orders as is the custom on the opposite side in its ultimatums from Washington. The appropriateness of this position was observable at once, and no further attempt was made to utilize the senator's name to boost aspirations of the ambitious.

It has been stated in these despatches that the utmost harmony has prevailed. While this is so with regard to nearly all of the delegations, it is more so of the Lucas delegation and that of the Ninth district. At the meeting of the delegates in the state auditor's office, even Ed Poe was happy and did all he could to make his democratic friends feel at home, not even springing an interview.

The delegates from Lucas, Wood, Fulton and Ottawa counties were called to order by State Committeeman William Beatty. Hon. L. C. Cole, of Wood, was made chairman and J. C. Bollmyer secretary. The following selections of members of the various committees were made by acclamation:

Credentials—L. C. Cole, Wood.

Resolutions—Elmer White, Lucas.

Permanent Organization—J. C. Bollmyer, Fulton.

Vice President—Jesse Hager, Wood.

Central Committee—William Beatty, Lucas.

A resolution was adopted requesting the delegates from the district to cast their votes for Hon. Frank Hurd as one of the delegates-at-large, and Elmer White was chosen to present Mr. Hurd's name to the convention. This concluded the district's business meeting, and the delegates adjourned to continue their labors in the hustling line.

The fifth district delegates were equally harmonious, and did what they had to do in apple-pie order. Bob Patterson, of Williams, was chairman, and Dr. Haggerty secretary. The committeemen are as follows:

Resolutions—John W. Winn, Defiance.

Credentials—Dan. Hartnett, Henry.

Permanent Organization—George Kohn, Van Wert.

Rules and Order of Business—John S. Snook, Paulding.

State Committeeman—W. W. Sutton, Putnam.

The candidates for delegate to Chicago have been doing a land office business in the hand-shaking line. With the exception of Allen Thurman, all have been located in comfortable headquarters in the Nell house, and thither the crowds have been taken by the runners and made acquainted with the good democrats who are seeking honors at the hands of their party associates. Mr. Hurd is located on the first floor. His room has been filled almost continually, and if half of those who called and promised their aid to the Toledoan keep their word, the democrats of the Future Great can arrange for a brass band to welcome him home. But there are a great many combinations talked of, and since the story will likely be told before the Bee goes to press, it is useless to prognosticate.

Notes.

Is it hot? Well!

Ben Wade was around, smiling and bland.

City Auditor Pharis is down among the faithful.

M. Harrington is shaking hands with old friends.

H. M. Hunt is on deck for the United Press, as usual.

General opinion is against instructions of any character.

Ike Hill came on from Washington, and is wild for Gorman.

Senator Ryan was one of Lucas county's delegation, as usual.

Gen. A. V. Rice is one of the most popular democrats on the ground.

Congressman Haynes and Donovan are missed, even if there is a crowd.

Charley Ashley mingled with the brethren in the manner of an old stager.

There was a great time last night, but "Oh, what a difference in the morning!"

Senator Mel Shaw, of Auglaize, would like to be one of the alternates. He is all right.

Columbus people and the local committee entertained visitors in handsome style this time.

A heavy thunder storm delayed the district meetings yesterday afternoon until nearly 4 o'clock.

Railroad Commissioner Kirkby was around among the Toledoans inquiring, "What can I do for you?"

There's a raft of congressmen at the convention—Outhwaite, Dungan, Warwick, Pearson and others.

The Jackson club, of Columbus, paraded the streets last night, and with their band made Rome howl.

Several republican jewelers from Toledo looked at the crowds and wondered where all the democrats came from.

Judge Beis, of Sandusky, was lost in a measure at this district meeting. Lucas and Ottawa democrats were missing.

George Boone has been on deck since early in the week. The strach in his high collar lost its force early in the game.

Lew Wachenheimer, of Toledo, got on his old gait at the convention and preceding the same, and appeared natural.

Governor Campbell and party leave for the Chicago convention on Friday in a private car over the Hocking Valley road.

Judge Austin and City Solicitor Read spent the day here, and of course will go home with the story that the convention was a tame affair.

Hon. Thad Cromley who made the race for secretary of state two years ago, has been here since Monday, and is willing to shout for the winner.

Mr. John Bolan has been the most zealous laborer in Mr. Hurd's behalf. If he is not chosen, it will not be because of lack of effort on Mr. B.'s part.

A grave mistake was made by the local committee in not providing for the committee meetings last evening. Much time was lost to-day on this account.

The friends of Hon. James E. Hunt, of Fremont, desired him to allow the use of his name as a candidate for supreme judge, but he would not consent.

L. C. Cole, who was a state committeeman in the district prior to Wood's shake up, gracefully withdrew in favor of Lucas county's choice for the new committee.

James Drummond, of East Toledo, kept up a steady battle for Mr. Hurd, and in conjunction was prolific in praises for Cleveland, whose nomination he looks for.

Just one very bad feature about this convention—there were not enough delegateships to accommodate the number of good men who desired to fill the positions.

Cuyahoga county delegates came up decorated with a badge, the only one of the convention. The name of Robert Blee for delegate-at-large was inscribed thereon.

There is a fair sprinkling of colored men among the delegates. They are for one of their number, R. A. Jones, of Cleveland, for member of the board of public works.

Blaine and Foster Had a Little Row

And Blaine Said He Would Not Play.

True Inwardness of the Reason for the Secretary's Sudden Withdrawal.

Chicago, June 15.—The Inter-Ocean Washington correspondent says:

Many causes have been alleged for the action of Mr. Blaine in terminating his relations with the president so abruptly. The final cause, however, was not disclosed until to-day.

The Canadian officials who came to Washington to talk over the questions pending between the state department and the Dominionx had had one conference the day preceding the resignation and met on Saturday, June 4th, to continue the discussion. Mr. Blaine attended the cabinet meeting on June 3, but remained only half an hour, excusing himself because of his desire to proceed with the business of the Canadians.

At the Saturday meeting he was making a statement of his views of the points in dispute, and what in his judgment was the question at issue, and the remedy for the differences between the two countries. There was also present John W. Foster, who has been attending to much state department work during Mr. Blaine's absence and illness, and in the midst of the remarks of Mr. Blaine he is said to have interrupted him with the suggestion that the views just expressed would hardly have the president's approval.

Mr. Blaine proceeded with his remarks and reiterated what had already been stated, adding with emphasis that the state department was able to take care of all the business belonging to it without advice from any one occupying a subordinate position in it.

Thereupon Mr. Foster said he knew Mr. Blaine was not presenting the views of the president and proceeded to state them by his direction, and in his name.

"Gentlemen," said the secretary, "this conference is adjourned," and he quickly left the room penning his resignation, while his indignation was at its height.

Mr. Foster assured the Canadians that Mr. Blaine's action would not make the slightest difference in the object of their visit, and that they could return to Ottawa at once and resume the discussion by correspondence. They accordingly left on the 4 o'clock train.

There were other cause of irritation which Mr. Blaine thought were intended to make his stay in the department disagreeable, but after the humiliation he was subjected to in the presence of the Canadian officials, he said he could not remain another moment and for that reason, the exact time, 12:45, was written on the letter that it might hereafter appear that between the record of the adjournment of the conference and his resignation there was but a very brief space of time.

This statement now explains the concluding sentence of Mr. Blaine's resignation: "The condition of public business in the department of state justifies me in requesting that my resignation may be accepted immediately."

In other words, Mr. Blaine construed Mr. Foster's statement as an announcement that he and not Mr. Blaine was the present representative in the state department and that his official rights and faculties as the president's mouthpiece had been suspended.

MORE FIGHTING.

Palacio Has Fled From the Capital.

The City in Great Excitement and All Business Suspended.

New York, June 15.—A special dispatch to the Herald from Curacao, W. I., says further information has been received there from Caracas in regard to the rumored flight of Palacio and the panic prevailing in the capital.

Rioting occurred in Caracas during which many persons were shot. The troops and the police finally dispersed the crowds, but the excitement in Caracas is said to be at fever heat and trouble may occur at any moment.

A meeting of the government officials has been held in the president's palace. Unconditional surrender to Crespo was suggested, but voted down.

Then it was proposed that Vice-President Villegas should act as president, but he emphatically declined to accept the perilous office. Then it was proposed that Minister of War Sarria exercise a dictator's duties temporarily. He accepted reluctantly.

All business in Caracas is suspended owing to the excitement. Palacio's whereabouts are not yet known.

The Herald's correspondent says he has these details from good authority, but sends the news without vouching for the facts.

PEWABIC-METEOR.

The Terrible Disaster at the Close of the War

roug ht to the Public Mind Once More.

The Steamer Emerald and Her Crew

Will Search the Bottom of the Lake

And Try to Recover Some of the Copper Which is Worth Many Thousands of Dollars—Details of the Trip.

Alpena, Mich., June 15.—The greatest treasure trove on the lakes is the steamer Pewabic and her valuable cargo of copper, which has lain since 1865 in Lake Huron off the north of Thunder bay. Like the seekers for Capt. Kidd's pirate treasures, the people who seek a treasure in this old-time wreck are not willing to abandon it. The steamer Emerald is now trying to raise the wreck, having left here a few days ago, after a month of preparation for the great task. Word comes to-day that not much progress has so far been made, but that the treasure seekers are not at all disheartened. They have gone prepared for the summer, and the Emerald may not visit shore over once a month.

Nothing new in the way of steam air-pumps for furnishing air to the divers, steam hoisting apparatus, the electricity or diving suits, which promised any good results, is missing from the Emerald. Aluminum is used in the divers' suits, making them both light and very strong. A heavy rubber suit covers the body and the metal trunks and corselets, but the helmet is uncovered as in the ordinary diving suit. Thus the diver is not only protected by everything that science can offer, but he has telephonic communication with the surface and a special electric light. It is thought that in these diving suits a man can do effective work in 200 feet of water. It is the invention of Oliver Pelkey, whose inventive genius cost him his life last fall, at this same treasure trove.

The Emerald is in command of Capt. Brown, but the expedition is in charge of Capt. C. A. Coon, of Duluth, who has three expert divers in his party and also an experienced wrecker—W. B. Duncan. The expedition is backed by Ashland (Wis.) capital, Mayor Durfee and F. Prentice having a controlling interest.

Last September these same people sent an expedition to the Pewabic. The principal diver at that time was Pelkey, who came from West Superior. November 2 a sunken vessel was located in 126 feet of water. Pelkey went down and remained 20 minutes. On coming to the surface he reported the hull of a large vessel, which he believed to be the lost Pewabic. He again went down and remained for upwards of an hour. His movements were followed and he evidently walked entirely around the wreck. He signalled to be hauled up 15 feet, and then went down suddenly. Here all signals ceased, and the attendant discovered that his lines were fast in the wreck, and effort was made to haul him up, which failed, and the steamer had to be started up, which brought the diver to the surface. The airpipe was broken, the suit was torn and Pelkey was just alive, but in a few minutes he died.

It being late in the fall the expedition was given up until this year, the winter and spring being spent in thorough preparation for the great search.

Beside the Emerald expedition to the Pewabic there is talk of another being fitted out at Duluth. It is certain that something is under way of that kind for Captain P. M. McFarlane, of Duluth; J. C. Hayne, of Rochester, and E. H. Brault, a diver from Green Bay, came here, chartered a tug and made a visit to the spot where the Pewabic is supposed to lie.

Several former expeditions have unsuccessfully searched for the Pewabic. The companies in which she was insured sent two lake tugs here in 1855, but they failed to locate the wreck. The next effort was made by Parsons, Snow & Co., of Detroit, in 1880, who were also unsuccessful. In 1881 an expedition was made up of Messrs. Henry Abber and Spencer, of this city, but after expending a large amount of money they also gave up the search. The next was the Emerald expedition of last year.

The loss of the Pewabic was one of the lake horrors. She was a fine new passenger propeller, 235 feet in length and belonged to the Lake Superior Transportation company. She cleared from Marquette for Buffalo, August 1, 1865, with a load of mass copper and 160 passengers. She left the port of Alpena, August 16 at 7 p. m., and outside of the mouth of the bay met the Meteor, of the same line, coming into port. The boats usually exchanged letters and papers as the passengers bound down were anxious to hear the news of that troublous time, which followed the war.

In coming together, there was some mistake of signals and the boats collided. The Pewabic was struck just aft of the pilot house below the water line. The Meteor backed away and the Pewabic went down in less than two minutes, carrying down many of the passengers and crew before they knew what had happened.

Only about 80 of the 200 people on the Pewabic were saved. The four principal officers of the two steamers are still alive.

Capt. George McKay, of the Pewabic, is manager of the Mutual Transportation at Cleveland, and treasurer of the Lake Carriers' association; George Cleveland, mate of the Pewabic, is captain of the steamer Jim Sheriffs. Captain Thomas Wilson, of the Meteor, is now a millionaire vessel owner in Cleveland, while Byron Mills, mate of the same steamer, is captain of some boat on Lake Superior.

The Pewabic's cargo of copper was worth at the time of her loss $180,000, and would now be valued perhaps half that sum. It is said that there was between $25,000 and $30,000 in the steamer's safe, which was being sent by express companies to eastern banks.

The Pewabic was a new boat, built of the best oak, and it is believed that her hull and machinery will not be much the worse for lying under the water 27 years if they can at last be secured.

SUNDAY BALL.

Findlay, O., June 15.—(Special)—The manager and umpire who took part in the Sunday ball game were fined $1 and costs. This is getting off very cheap for an offense which the law makes criminal.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

An Indiana Man is Saved by a Discovery.

A remarkable case has occurred in our territory. J. N. Berry, a man about thirty years of age, was going down rapidly. He tried physician after physician, patent medicines, home receipts—in fact, everything. He went to a noted sanitarium and returned no better. We all thought he was dying with consumption, and that only a few weeks of life were left for him.

He commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and at the same time commenced to mend. He has used about two dozen bottles, and is still using it. He has gained in weight, color and strength, and is able to do light work. It is just such a case as we should have listened to rather suspiciously, but when we see it, we must believe it.

It has trebled our sales of "Golden Medical Discovery." JOHN HACKETT & SON, Druggists, Roanoke, Ind.

"Discovery" strengthens Weak Lungs, and cures Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and kindred affections. Don't be fooled into taking something else, said to be "just as good," that the dealer may make a larger profit.

UNION PRINTERS.

Proceedings of the Meeting in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, June 15.—At the second day's session of the International Typographical union, the committee on laws reported favorably the proposed amendment to the constitution relating to strikes, as follows:

"Immediately call upon the organizer of the district, who shall repair to the city involved, and failing to effect a settlement of the question at issue, he shall call meetings of all the unions represented in the allied printing trades council in said city, and should a majority of said allied trades decide by a three-fourths vote to strike, such action shall be deemed binding upon them all, and a strike may be authorized without appealing to the executive council of the International Typographical union—provided, that this shall only apply to cities where an allied printing trades council exists."

The committee's unfavorable report was rejected. Pending further action the committee on credentials reported in favor of John McMillan, of Pressmen's union No. 3, Chicago, over Bernard Nolan, and the report was adopted. Other contested cases were postponed.

A resolution submitted by the special committee on the Childs-Drexel home for union printers at Colorado Springs was taken up. Mr. Snyder, the chairman, said that he had asked nearly every member of the board of directors for the bids for the erection of the home and for all the correspondence relating to them. All whom he saw denied having the papers in their possession.

"The allegation has been made that the contracts were awarded," said Mr. Snyder, "at a price several thousand dollars higher than the lowest bid. We are appointed to look into the case; and we can't do so unless we have the documents bearing upon it. The resolution instructs the board to furnish us with these documents. I hope it will pass."

Mr. Snyder's hope was fulfilled, and the convention determined that when the special committee's report was submitted it should be considered in executive session.

Among other business was an invitation to the convention from Col. Elliott F. Sheyard, of the New York Mail and Express, to attend the opening of his new publication building. Instead of accepting the delegates decided that a committee of five should wait on him, and ask him to employ only union pressmen and stereotypers. If he acceded to the demand they would attend the opening.

REPUBLICAN LOVE FEAST.

The Clans Will Rally and the Band Will Play.

The Skeleton Will be Locked in Its Closet and the Tucker-Waldorf Ghost Will be Tied Up.

The local republican clans propose having a ratification Friday evening. This afternoon a meeting will be held at the rooms of the Toledo republican club for the purpose of making arrangements.

There is a large full-sized skeleton in the closet of the republican club, but the thing will not be turned out in parade. The postoffice people are heading the rally and will engineer the affair.

The federal officeholders have to give some excuse for their existence. At a private seance yesterday the following names were selected as a committee on arrangements:

R. M. Parke, W. F. Henning, Reynold Voit, C. A. Carlisle, T. W. Wheeler, W. H. Wilhelm, Archie Gassoway, C. H. Jones, S. S. Benster, W. I. Squire, A. P. Wendt, J. J. Morganthaler, George T. Hoffmann, J. J. Baird, J. B. Hemingway, W. H. Young, W. F. Brown, S. W. Beckwith, C. P. Griffin, Carl Beckham, J. C. Rike, F. L. Baird, W. E. Werner, H. Harbustee, Herman Baumbach, C. Hall, Wm. Kirkby, L. W. Morris, Jacob Englehardt, F. W. Rickenbaugh, A. B. Mason, W. L. Johnson, James Hale.

Few of the above even know yet that they have thus been honored, or at least will not until they read the Bee.

The program has not yet been arranged for the public meeting of Friday night, but the following is a rough draft of the affair:

Address, "Why I Flopped," by T. H. Tucker.

Recitation, "The Way I Ran Things at Minneapolis," Mayor Vince Emmick.

Address, "I do Hate Traitors," by Geo. P. Waldorf.

Song, "Foraker's Raid," by W. I. Squire.

Anticipating a lack of enthusiasm, Battery D has been engaged to boom the thing and a hundred-gun salute will be fired over the grave where the McKinley presidential boom lies at rest.

THE FIGHT IN ILLINOIS.

It is to be Made on National Issues.

A Most Intense Three-Cornered Campaign Will be Made From the Start.

Chicago, June 15.—The republican state central committee is in session to-day at the Grand Pacific hotel for the purpose of organizing for the approaching campaign.

The meeting, following so soon after the nomination of the republican presidential ticket, is significant of the fact that the fight is to be made on national issues.

The republican and democratic state tickets are already in the field, the people's party convention meets in a few days, and the prohibition ticket will be put forward later in the season.

All of these organizations owe their origin to national ideas, and the indications now are that the presidential campaign in this state will not be obscured by local issues of any kind.

There has been a great deal of furor over the obnoxious compulsory education law, but after the smoke of the first charge has cleared away the German Lutherans will find that both parties are practically pledged to its repeal, and that the question is no longer a party issue. The first work of the committee will be the election of a new chairman to succeed A. M., better known as "Long" Jones, and who is no longer a member of the committee.

AMERICAN REGISTER

To Be Given to Another Foreign Built Boat.

Washington, June 15.—Representative Fowler has reported to the house from the committee on merchant marine the Geary bill granting an American register to the steamship China.

The bill, says an accompanying report, grants the same privilege to the ship as has been recently granted by congress to the Inman steamships City of Paris and City of New York.

The vessel is owned by a British corporation known as the China Steamship company, limited, the whole of whose capital stock is owned by the Pacific Mail Steamship Co., a small percentage thereof being set apart to qualify certain Englishmen to act as directors of the British corporation. The vessel has no contractual relations with the British government, such as the Inman steamers had. During the recent troubles with Chile the secretary of the navy had arranged to obtain her from the Pacific Mail Steamship Co., in the event of hostilities, and the committee is assured the report says, that the navy department will put itself on record in favor of the proposed legislation.

If this bill be passed the company will not only build a vessel in an American shipyard equal in tonnage to the China as required by the bill, but the committee is assured by the company's representatives that it will build two vessels of at least 8,000 tons each. The China is a vessel of about 5,000 tons register.

TO CLOSE THE SALOONS.

Upper Sandusky, O., June 15.—Hereafter saloons in Upper Sandusky will remain closed on Sunday and between the hours of 12 and 5 week nights. This is reform No. 2 of Mayor Clogard, recently appointed, vice Mayor Meyers, deceased.

The first movement of the mayor was to stop gambling and he succeeded completely, as far as gambling shops are concerned.

The council has backed up the mayor by passing an ordinance concerning saloons, the order taking effect to-night.

WILL SOCK IT TO JERRY.

Simpson is Playing in Hard Lines.

The Farmers Think He Went Back on Them.

He Now Wears Tailor-Made Clothes and Rides a Bike—This is Against the Alliance.

Kingman, Ks., June 15.—The republicans of the Seventh district are in session here to-day for the purpose of nominating a candidate for congress against Jerry Simpson.

More than usual importance attaches to the congressional cupaign in this district from the fact that Simpson is regarded as the mainstay of the third party in Kansas, and it is thought that his re-election would greatly strengthen that movement, and that his defeat would give the republicans a good prospect of carrying the whole state.

Hence it is that the republicans are centering their big guns on this particular part of the state.

Simpson is well aware of the importance of the fight he has on his hands, and realizes that to a considerable extent he is responsible for the fate of the people's party in Kansas, and he intends to prove equal to the occasion by commencing a school house campaign on the first of August, and continuing the good work until November.

He is one of the best political speakers in Kansas, as was demonstrated by his remarkable canvass of the district two years ago.

It is impossible for Simpson to make a clear and logical argument of any question, but when placed before an audience of farmers and workmen, of whom his constituency is largely comprised, he makes a speech that almost carries them off their feet.

The republicans will endeavor to place him on the defensive by requiring him to answer for his position on the tariff question.

His speech declaring for free trade is already being circulated by thousands. Jerry's farmer constituents are also taking exception to the fact that he has been "putting on airs" during his sojourn in Washington, the latter indictment including several counts such as wearing custom made clothes.

The congressman's bicycle also comes in for its share of condemnation and the story is being circulated among the farmers that the superior charms of cycling have on more than one occasion weaned their representative from his official duties.

Another charge against Simpson is that he changed front on the measure to prevent option dealing in grain.

At the start he was in favor of the anti-option bill, but recently he declared against it, and the story has become current in the seventh that the "Board of Trade lobby" in Washington got around Simpson and induced him to change front.

Senator Chester I. Long will in all probability be nominated by the convention, and although but 29 years of age, he is regarded as one of the shrewdest politicians in Kansas.

He has been pitted against Simpson in several local contests at Medicine Lodge, where both of them have their homes, and has always come out victorious.

The republicans believe he can make a canvass that will beat the sockless statesman, but the people's party managers claim that when Simpson gets before the people he will stir them up as he did two years ago, and that he will win the fight by 5,000 majority.

MRS. HENRY MEKO,

Living at 437 Floyd Street,

Has Had Sixteen Nasal Tumors Permanently Removed by Dr Kalkhoff Who Also Cured Her Terrible Case of Catarrh.

For years Mrs. Meko, of 437 Floyd street, has suffered from the ravages of that dread disease called catarrh. For some time past the air passages of her nose were so completely closed by the catarrhal secretions that she was compelled to breathe entirely through her mouth. The highly poisonous matter thrown off by the mucous surfaces of the nose, head and throat had poisoned the lining of the stomach and permeated the blood.

In Mrs. Meko's case the chronic inflammation of the mucous membrane of the nose, together with the catarrhal poison, had produced sixteen nasal tumors, which were painlessly and permanently removed by Dr. Kalkhoff, the European Specialist, at his extensive offices, surgery and laboratory, 505 and 507 Summit street, between Oak and Orange. Not only did Dr. Kalkhoff remove these tumors, but he also eradicated the poison from her system and cured the chronic inflammation so that they will not return.

The healing of the diseased mucous membrane of the nose, head and throat was accomplished by compressed medical gases which penetrate the remote diseased cavities where liquid sprays and air do not reach. But the cure of the diseased mucous membrane by Dr. Kalkhoff's original medicated gas method is only half the battle in the permanent cure of catarrh. The poison must also be eradicated from the blood as stated above to make the cure permanent. Dr. Kalkhoff causes the organs of the body to throw off the poisonous catarrhal virus by the use of his European vegetable remedies prepared under his personal direction in his own laboratory. Desperate diseases can only be cured by aid of powerful remedies, and not by the absurd schemes of pumping air into the patient's nose or throat or deadening the diseased parts with poisonous drugs.

Remember that Dr. Kalkhoff has separate departments for each class of diseases, and that he will give $1,000 for any case that he fails to cure when pronounced curable. All kinds of chronic and desperate diseases treated with unfailing success through correspondence. One visit is desirable, but not necessary. Out of town people who need skilled medical treatment should write Dr. Kalkhoff for a free question blank so as to get a scientific diagnosis of their case.

TO SUCCEED BLAINE.

Reported That President Harrison Has Offered the Portfolio to Depew.

New York, June 15.—An announcement that Secretary Elkins had arrived in this city with a message from the president to Chauncey M. Depew, stating his desire for him to accept the portfolio of secretary of state has created considerable comment among republicans in this city.

THE BRIGGS CASE.

New York, June 15.—The Presbytery of New York received the official announcement from the general assembly in effect that it had ruled for new trial of Dr. Briggs on the charge of heresy.

On motion of Dr. Thompson it was resolved that in the judgment of the presbytery the issue of the case is impracticable during the summer, but will receive the attention of the presbytery when it reassembles in the fall. The presbytery will resume its meeting on October 3, when the Briggs case will be taken up. Dr. Briggs was present and said he did not fear the issue.

TWO IMPORTANT DECISIONS.

Columbus, O., June 15.—In the supreme court this afternoon two important decisions were rendered. They involve the same question of law, which is in effect that under the Dow law the owner of property in which a saloon is kept is liable for damages done by the saloonkeeper selling whisky to habitual drunkards. The case in which these decisions were made are those of Margaret Mullen against Rebecca J. Peck, and Margaret Deegan against Sidney Ann Nevil. The first case is from Belmont county, the latter from Trumbull.

SPORTING NEWS.

Western League base ball is getting mixed up. Indianapolis is on the market, and Minneapolis is worse; Joliet and Terre Haute are both candidates for admission into the Western league, and the former is trying to get rid of what good players it has. An attempt is now being made to trade Frank Genins for Black-Eested Eddie Burke, and a bonus. If the Western league expects to draw fires the rest of the season it cannot afford to let go of such men as Genins. Of course the rules of the Western league make such a change difficult, but Brush is not in the base ball business for fun, and his personal interests over-shadow those of the league. You need not be surprised if you see Genins with Comiskey's winners.

JUDGE COWAN.

Account of the Death of a Well-Liked Man.

The Cincinnati Enquirer gives this account of the sudden and unexpected death of Judge Cowan at Cincinnati, who has relatives and a wide acquaintance in this city:

The venerable Judge C. W. Cowan was stricken by apoplexy while he was talking to a client in his office.

He fell from his chair, half unconscious, and, although he was able to speak some few coherent words and half direct the willing hands by which his removal to the Grand hotel was made, his left side was completely paralyzed. He was carried from his office and driven hurriedly in a cab to the hotel, where he has lived for years. He was taken to a special room to which Manager Shears assigned him, his own room not being ready for occupancy. Dr. T. C. Minor was called to attend him, and after he had been put to bed and given restoratives he seemed to revive somewhat.

At about 3 p. m., however, a second stroke came to the sufferer, and from that on he sank rapidly. At 5 o'clock he was in a state of coma.

He continued to sink, and shortly after 6 o'clock he died.

General Cowan, or "judge," as he was almost universally known, was one of the foremost attorneys at the bar of Hamilton county. For years, despite the fact that his health has been steadily failing, he has retained fully his mental powers. He has been the principal attorney for the heirs in the Barr will case, and his extraordinary legal knowledge and acumen have gone far toward bringing the case forward in the courts.

General Cowan's father was a Presbyterian minister. He is 70 years old and a native of Massachusetts. He was educated in New York and first practiced law in Mercer, Van Wert and Auglaize counties, early in their settlement. He came to this city in the '70s and practiced alone until 1876, when he formed a partnership with Richard H. Durrell. In 1879 he withdrew from that firm and became a partner of Judge Howard Ferris. When Judge Ferris was called to the bench General Cowan continued their practice at Fifth and Walnut streets. Mrs. Cowan died 28 years ago, leaving three daughters and one son. One daughter lived with her father at the Grand hotel. Two are married; one to G. W. Layng, of Toledo, O., the other to Frank S. Layng, of Philadelphia, Pa. The son is in business in Maryland.

No Money Required of Responsible Parties to Commence Treatment

Formerly, of New York, now the Celebrated Examining Physicians of THE FRANCE MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE, Columbus, Ohio, by request of many friends and patients, have decided to visit Toledo

Dr. Ottman, Saturday, June 18.

Dr. France, Wednesday, July 6.

Consultation and Examination Free and Strictly Confidential in the Private Parlor of the Burnett House from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m., one day only.

The doctors describe the different diseases better than the sick can themselves. It is a wonderful gift for any one to possess. Their diagnostic powers have created wonders throughout the country.

The France Medical and Surgical Institute of Columbus, Ohio, is the only Medical Institute in the State incorporated with a Capital of $300,000.00.

FRANCE MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE,

38 & 40 W. Gay St., one block N. of State House, Columbus, O. Incorporated, 1886. Capital, $300,000.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, of New York, the well known and successful Specialists in Chronic Diseases and Diseases of the Eye and Ear, on account of their large practice in Ohio, have established the FRANCE MEDICAL INSTITUTE, where all forms of Chronic, Nervous and Private Diseases will be successfully treated on the most Scientific principles. They are ably assisted by a full corps of eminent Physicians and Surgeons, each one being a well known specialist in his profession

CANCER positively cured without pain or use of the knife, by a new method.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—DR. FRANCE, after years of experience, has discovered the greatest cure known for all diseases peculiar to the sex. Female diseases positively cured by the new remedy, OLIVE BLOSSOM. The cure is effected by home treatment. Entirely harmless and easily applied. Consultation Free and Strictly Confidential. Correspondence promptly answered.

YOUNG MEN—Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect, may call with confidence.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, after years of experience, have discovered the greatest cure known for weakness in the back and limbs, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, langnor, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timidity, trembling, dimness of sight, or giddiness, diseases of the head, throat, nose, or skin, affections of the liver, lungs, stomach, or bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the solitary vice of youth—and secret practices, blighting their most radiant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage impossible. Take one candid thought before it is too late. A week or month may place your case beyond the reach of hope. Our method of treatment will speedily and permanently cure the most obstinate case, and absolutely restore perfect manhood.

TO MIDDLE-AGED MEN.—There are many from the age of 30 to 60 who are troubled with frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight burning or smarting sensation, weakening the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examination of the urinary deposits, a ropy sediment will be found, or the color will be a thin or milkish hue. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is a second stage of seminal weakness. We will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—We have a special department, thoroughly organized, and devoted exclusively to the treatment of diseases of women. Every case consulting our specialists, whether by letter or in person, is given the most careful and considerate attention. Important cases (and we get few which have not baffled the skill of all the home physicians) have the benefit of a full council of skilled specialists. In treatment of diseases peculiar to females, success has been marked, over two-thirds of our patients being ladies, old, young, married, single, rich or poor. Our method is entirely free from objectionable features of the general practitioner, namely, "Local treatment." We seldom find it necessary. We prepare remedies, constitutional and local, as the case demands, and instruct ladies how to treat themselves.

MARRIAGE.—Married persons, or young men contemplating marriage, aware of physical weakness, loss of procreative powers, impotency, or any other disqualification, speedily restored.

PRIVATE DISEASES.—Blood Poison, Venereal Taint, Gleet, Stricture, Seminal Emissions, Loss of Sexual Power, Weakness of Sexual Organs, Want of Desire in Male or Female, whether from imprudent habits of youth or sexual habits of mature years, or any cause that debilitates the sexual functions, speedily and permanently cured. Consultation free and strictly confidential. Absolute cures guaranteed. Medicines sent free from observation to all parts of the United States.

EPILEPSY, OR FITS—Positively cured by a new and never-failing method. Testimonials furnished.

FREE EXAMINATION OF THE URINE.—Each person applying for medical treatment should send or bring from 2 to 4 ounces of urine (that passed first in the morning preferred), which will receive a careful chemical and microscopical examination, and if requested a written analysis will be given.

Persons ruined in health by unlearned pretenders, who keep trifling with them month after month, giving poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately. Delays are dangerous.

WONDERFUL CURES Perfected in old cases which have been neglected or unskillfully treated. Consultation free and strictly confidential. No experiments or failures. Parties treated by mail or express, but where possible, personal consultation is preferred. Curable cases guaranteed. No risks incurred.

Cases and correspondence confidential. Treatment sent C. O. D. to any part of U. S. List of 130 questions free. Address, with postage, DR. FRANCE, Nos. 38 and 40 W. Gay St., Columbus, O.

Cleveland's Baking Powder

"Absolutely the Best."

It is made of pure cream of tartar and soda, no ammonia, no alum. A like quantity goes farther and does better work. It is therefore cheaper.

Cleveland's is the baking powder used in the U. S. Army and by teachers of cookery. It never varies, and always gives perfect satisfaction. Try a can.

At Scranton, Pa., to-day will be gathered the survivors of the Army of the Potomac.

They have formed themselves into an association for the purpose of perpetuating the name and fame of those who fell in its campaigns, marches and skirmishes. It is expected that the president and many other notables will be there.

Y. M. C. A. OFFICERS

Were Elected Last Evening by the New Board.

Last evening the new board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. met and elected the following officers: President, H. E. King; vice-president, J. J. Freeman; recording secretary, J. O. Hill; treasurer, E. J. Cannan. The various committees will remain unchanged for the present.

THE BOY BURGLARS

Are Sent to the Boys' Industrial School.

The case of the four school boys who broke into the store of Ernst Henerman, on Colburn street, came up in police court this morning. The older boys, Gust Highton, William Cuahlen and James Lahey, were sent to the Boys' Industrial school until 21 years of age unless released by due process of law and Andy Georne, who is only 9 years old, was sentenced to the city prison for 10 hours.

QUITE A MORTGAGE.

Big Railroad Paper Recorded at the Court House.

A big mortgage was filed at the county recorder's office late yesterday afternoon. The mortgager is the Cincinnati, Jackson & Mackinaw Railroad company, and the mortgagee the Central Trust company, of New York.

The consideration is $4,800,000, given to secure the issue of 4 per cent. bonds, principal payable June 1, 1991; interest semi-annually.

WANTED FOR FOUR MONTHS.

Thomas Burdock Is Bound Over for Robbery.

Thomas Burdock has been wanted by the police for some four months, as it was alleged that he stole $37 from John Fell. Mr. Fell told the police that Burdock followed him out of a saloon, caught him around the waist and held him while he took the money from his pocket. It looked as if Burdock was guilty, as he immediately left town and his whereabouts were not known.

Finally Detective Carew located him on a farm near Swanton and he was arrested. He was brought in police court this morning and bound over to the common pleas court on the charge of robbery. Bail was fixed at $500

THE TRAMP SEASON.

In Hard Lines, But Kind to the Ladies

Two of our most popular and philanthropic young ladies living on Cherry street, on returning home from a visit last night to the Home for Old Ladies on Collingwood avenue, were followed and accosted by a tramp who had evidently been waiting for them.

The man, who wore dark clothing and an old straw hat, persisted in accompanying them home, but apart from the annoyance of his serio-comic attempts at conversation there was no attempt to rob or molest. The young ladies were heartily glad to see him vanish in the darkness.

EPWORTH LEAGUE SOCIAL.

Delightful Time at Mr. E. W. Tolerton's Last Evening.

The monthly social and business meeting of the Epworth league of St. Paul's M. E. church occurred last evening at the residence of E. W. Tolerton, on Jefferson street. The delegates to the recent Epworth league convention presented a full report. The program was brief, consisting of a vocal solo by Mr. Harry Breckenridge, and a mandolin solo by Mr. Warren, accompanied by Miss Claflin. This was the last social of the league for the summer, but the regular work will go on as usual. Miss Hattie Frankeberger read an interesting report of the proceedings of the recent State Epworth league convention at Marietta.

SOMETHING QUITE NEW

In the Way of Entertainments Friday Evening.

The entertainment in course of preparation by the physical culture class of the Young Women's Christian association at Pythian Castle, Friday evening next, June 17, will be novel and pleasing. The class will give their marching drill in their gymnasium suits. In the free-hand exercises, white Josephine costumes will be worn, thus giving a pretty scenic effect to the stage. The class is under the tuition of Miss Phelps, and this is their junior exhibition, so to speak. The music will be under the direction of Mrs. Farrar. Mrs. J. A. P. McGaw, Mrs. Beeley and Miss Ada Collins are other ladies active in committee work. The program in full will be published later. The Bee bespeaks a good attendance, assured both of the interesting character of the exercises and of the worthiness of the association having it in charge.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.

James McQuade's House Burned to the Ground This Morning.

Shortly before 5 o'clock this morning fire broke out in the two-story frame house, 1618 Germania street, owned and occupied by James McQuade. The department responded but the building could not be saved. The loss on house and contents amounts to about $500.

BAUMGARDNER FLATS.

Bacon & Huber Preparing the Plans—It is a Go.

A week ago the Bee announced that the Ricks-Baumgardner-Doyle syndicate intended erecting a large compartment house on the corner of Madison and Tenth streets.

Bacon & Huber have secured the contract for preparing the plans, and it is a go. The building will be 100 feet square and five stories in height.

IN THE U. S. COURT.

Prisoners on Trial—Verdict of Guilty.

The trial of Hiza Vermillion, on the charge of sending an obscene valentine through the mails, terminated in the United States court this morning and the jury, after being out an hour, brought in a verdict of guilty as charged. The judge reserved his decision.

The case of Balzar Brown, one of a similar nature, was then taken up.

Lysight, the weather bureau officer, had a hearing before Judge Ricks. There were no witnesses. Mr. Jacob Hime, the complainant, plainly told his story, and Mr. Lysight made a brief statement. The judge said he would dispose of the case later in the day.

James Rooney, the well-known tug owner, was arraigned on the charge of impeding the waters of Maumee bay by casting therein certain rubbish. He pleaded not guilty and the case will come up later.

WONDERFUL TIME

Made by Judge McCory at the Fair Grounds Yesterday.

The first matinee of the season at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon was an entire success. The event of the day was the time of Mr. William Moorehouse to drive Judge McCory in better than 2:36 1-2. Bets were freely made that he could not do it, but he did. He made the mile without a break in 2:34 3-4, to the great surprise of everyone.

Mr. Geo. H. Ketcham drove Susie B. as trotting mate to the Judge.

"It was a wonderful mile, all things considered," Mr. Ketcham said this morning. "Remember the Judge was driven to a road cart. Why, I would have bet 50 to 5 that the horse could not do better than 2:36."

TALK WITH MR. HURRLE.

He Still Likes Toledo—Glassmaking in Indiana.

Mr. Charles J. Hurrle, who organized the Toledo Window Glass company and started the works on Buckeye street, but is now running a factory in Dunkirk, Ind., near Marion, has been in Toledo for a few days, but left last night for his Indiana home.

He was asked how he liked his new location.

"Very well, indeed, for a glass factory, but as a place to live I am home sick for Toledo. My family live in Muncie. Dunkirk has plenty of gas. We have our own well on our own ground and our fuel costs us nothing, while if we used coal it would cost $8,000 to $10,000 a year."

What is the size of your factory?

"Twelve pots; we employ 65 hands and will run close up to July 1. We have no stock on hand and our year will show a good profit, while glass factories out of the gas belt have made no money this season."

KNIGHTS OF HONOR.

Officers Elected at the Toledo Meeting.

Robert M. Allen, of Dayton, dictator; H. A. Dilg, Hamilton, vice-dictator; John Biddle, Delaware, assistant dictator; Lewis Wilson, Xenia, reporter; James Caldwell, Cleveland, treasurer; B. F. Hargreaves, Kent, chaplain; John Josephs, Alliance, guide; F. J. Stalle, Cincinnati, guardian; Charles A. Tyler, Fremont, sentinel; B. O. Hildreth, O. B. Clark, C. C. Adams, trustees; T. H. Johnson, F. M. Marsh, Dan Babst, jr., supreme representatives; Geo. H. Allen, B. T. Shott, S. B. Hanmel, alternate representatives; W. O. Smith, of Cincinnati, state medical examiner.

All the selections are good and will give satisfaction to the order everywhere. Many of the officers, indeed most of them, are men of state and national reputations, and their names stand for integrity, justice and charity.

Last evening the local lodge held their regular meeting, and a large number of delegates attended.

To-day's sessions will be taken up with installations of the new officers and the selection of time and place for the next meeting. A number of the delegates were taking an excursion around the Belt this morning.

The K. of H. held a business session at 11 o'clock this morning which was followed by an installation of officers by Supreme Reporter Nelson. Col. Louis Nelson was elected by acclamation to succeed himself as grand reporter. Today closes the most successful and interesting convention.

MONTHLY MEETING

Of the Humane Society—Excellent Reports.

The June meeting of the Humane society was held in the office of the Humane agent last evening, Mr. Brown presiding, and Mrs. Brooks, the secretary, reading the minutes of the previous meeting. Mr. France read a very interesting report of the work of the month, and Mrs. Bacon also read a full report, giving detailed accounts of the extreme poverty and squalor of certain families coming under her observation; also an account of a young girl whom she had taken to the reform school.

The matter of having the agent look after children, whose parents are sent to the stoneyard was discussed, and the agent instructed to see that the children are cared for and report to the society.

Fifty-six cases had been attended to during the month, as follows:

Relief furnished, 4; cruelty to children, 7; cruelty to wife and family, 20; convictions for cruelty and neglect of family, 11; convictions for cruelty and neglect of children, 4; investigations not sustained for cruelty to wife and family, 4; charges withdrawn by wife, 3; desertions, 4; cases marked off docket by prosecuting attorney, 1; bail forfeited in case of neglect and rearrest ordered, 1; homes found, 2; Miami home, 6; abuse to animals, 4; horses shot, 4; dogs shot, 1; animals laid up as unfit for service, 1; overloading animals, 2; admonitions for cruelty to animals, 5; number of children coming under our notice, 101.

The reports show that the society is doing good work. An adjournment was taken at 9:30.

Presque Isle | This beautiful resort is now open. Steamer Pastime leaves 10 a. m., 12 m., 2:30, 5:30, and 8:30 p. m. The 2:30 and 8:30 p. m. boats go to the lake, stopping at Presque Isle going and coming.

COUNTY DOWN.

Dublin, June 15.—The farmers of County Down assembled in convention to-day, adopted a resolution denouncing the Irish land commissioners, and advocating state ownership of land.

The resolutions earnestly urge Mr. Gladstone, if successful in the coming elections, to settle the Irish land question.

SENATOR HILL.

He is Calmly Watching the Signs.

David Will Not Go to Chicago but Will Have His Able Lieutenants on Hand.

Washington, June 15.—Senator David B. Hill says he is not going to Chicago. When the senator was asked if the table published yesterday of the probale result of the first ballot at Chicago wys correct, he only replied, "Anybody can make up a table."

His friends here say that Hill's vote on the first ballot will be in the neighborhood of 314, the number given in the table. General Tracy, of New York, claims 644 votes for Cleveland on the first ballot, being more than enough to insure his nomination, as but 599 are necessary to a choice. Senator Gorman is non-communicative on the subject of his candidacy, but his friends are outspoken in his behalf and appear confident that his chances as a dark horse are very good. Senator Gorman leaves Washington for Chicago Thursday and his workers will not be far behind.

Motion to Discharge the Receiver.

More Interesting Legal Tangle Comes Up at the Court House.

The legal controversy over the assets of the clothing firm of Fred W. Eversman & Co., which is in financial distress, full particulars of which appeared in the Bee of yesterday, is more of a tangle to-day than ever.

At 5 o'clock, last evening, Jacob Mandler was appointed receiver and took possession of the stock to-day.

This morning A. Wilkowski & Co., began action against the receiver in Common Pleas court, o replevin a certain lot of pantaloons which it is claimed the receiver unlawfully detains. The petition also prays for $100 damages, and possession of property described.

At 5 o'clock this evening a motion will be argued to remove the receiver.

The assets are estimated at $12,000 and liabilities, $20,000.

TAMMANY IS FIRM.

The Tiger Will Show His Teeth for Hill.

New York, June 15.—Lieut.-Gov. Sheehan, Richard Croker, Corporation Counsel Clark and Chairman of the democratic state committee Edward Murphy, left on the Pennsylvania limited at 10 o'clock this morning for Chicago. A reporter of the United Press asked Mr. Croker before he stepped on the train if there had been any change in the attitude of Tammany hall toward the candidacy of Senator Hill for the democratic nomination.

Mr. Croker replied: "None whatever. We go to Chicago pledged to the support of Senator Hill as long as he is in the field."

"Do you think he will secure the nomination?" was asked.

"I cannot say. I hope he will. He is the man we want to see nominated and we will do all we can to bring it about."

Mr. Croker said the report in a morning newspaper that the New York delegation had decided to support Cleveland was news to him.

WANT TO LYNCH HIM.

A Colored Man in a Tight Place.

Guthrie, O. T., June 15.—Two attempts have been made within 24 hours to lynch Holly, colored, charged with assault. They were unsuccessful. Last night a man with a rope tied to his saddle rode up to Philip Sunfield's place and said: "Boys, we are going to have him." This was enough to incite a hundred or more to run after the horseman. Arriving at the jail, the determined attitude taken by the officer and the large guard cuased the mob to disperse.

At 10:25 o'clock last night 500 men marched to the jail and demanded the prisoner. The sheriff stated the prisoner was not there, but this did not satisfy the mob, and a committee was appointed to search the jail. They reported that Holly had been taken away.

Holly admits the charges against him and has been identified by the woman he assaulted, and if his whereabouts are learned the mob will probably make another attempt upon his life.

We Never Shrink

From our duty to our customers, consequently the clothing we sell never shrinks on our customers. We prefer to leave a man enough room to laugh in his sleeve if he wants to, and as we wish our customers to grow more we would not sell them clothing that grows less. The best material, therefore, is put in our garment. They are made in the best fashions by the best workmen, and if we don't ask the best prices for them it is because we are more anxious for customers than money. We are offering a special reduction on Summer Overcoats of 20 per cent. Our Straw Hat sale is still drawing the crowds, and we still lead in 25 and 50 cent neckwear.

Don't fail to try us. We will always be the reliable clothing house of Toledo.

Chicago's Ratification Meeting

Chicago republican clubs met to ratify the nomination, and in spite of everything the exercises turned into Blaine obsequies. Judge Thurston forgot what he was there for, and with tears in his voice said:

We anticipate no favors. We expect no rewards. We will condone by silence what we cannot publicly condemn. We have only deemed public office as a public trust whose patronage should not be bestowed for personal gains. * * * Bear with us patiently yet a little, if we cannot in a single hour transfer the boundless enthusiasm for the name upon our hearts to the name upon the ticket.

After a little the chairman of the Minneapolis affair got there. He lauded himself through his tariff law in the old-time, getting-to-be-wearisome style. He told the farmers how prosperous they had become through a beneficent tax on dried bladders, onion sets, paper rags and a few other things of like imporance, none of which he had time to mention by name.

Mr. McKinley never stops to bother with facts when he grows eloquent. He has one idea, and he dresses the old thing up in more fancy costumes than ever Lydia Thompson sported in her palmy days. He talks about "your broad beautiful acres," but he never alludes to Mr. Porter's appalling list of mortgages hanging over them. He raves about protected labor, but he doesn't refer to the strikes, lock-outs, and pauper contract squads that sneak into the protected factories every day in the week. Mr. McKinley doesn't like to think of unpleasant things; he would rather wind a rainbow ribbon about his statuesque pose and bathe his self-glory in the haze of fond imaginings.

He said democrats believe in buying abroad, and republicans at home. He didn't take occasion to state that in the neighborhood of 100,000 luxurious American citizens are, this moment, ransacking the beautiful shops of London and Paris where you can buy woolens and silks, gloves and hosiery, lace and jewels, hats and bonnets, shawls and mantles, linen and lingerie, trifles and fancy goods of every kind a third cheaper than you can buy them at home. Probably Mr. McKinley don't know that the custom-house officers line their pockets with bribe money every time the great steamships unload the trunks containing the wonderful wardrobes of these favored Americans, so he doesn't say anything about that. He is talking for the men and women who count their hard-earned dimes and scrimp and calculate what they can do without, instead of where they can go to spend. These are "the dear people" who are supporting the home market. The others have the most fun and finery, but laborers mustn't expect these things. They must patiently pay "a little more on everything they buy but not enough to be felt" to keep this gorgeous procession moving.

Of course Mr. McKinley didn't say these things in these words, but they spoke out for themselves with the cold, hard ring of truth, between all his platitudes and falsehoods. The name of Blaine was the only one that awakened a cheer in this attempt at jubilation which turned into a funeral. Even the Governor's harangue was received with listless inattention and the "ratification" meeting dissolved.

Roads and Road Building Exhibit.

An energetic movement is in progress, in the country, to make provision for a comprehensive exhibition of improved roads and road-making machinery at the World's Fair, in Chicago. Col. Albert A. Pope, whose pen in the "Good Roads" magazine is doing such excellent work for the cause, is the prime mover in the project. Mr. Pope is an enthusiast, and he is not alone in believing that the building of good roads in this country is paramount in practical importance to the tariff question, silver coinage, or almost any other issue before the people. It is "bad roads" that isolate the farmer and his family and make farm life a dreary thing for young people. They cost the farmers in the aggregate, a mint of money every year through losses sustained because of them. They wear out his horses and vehicles and keep him from his market town, oftentimes at the most auspicious season. The city as well as the country, is interested. The merchant needs the farmer as much as the farmer needs the merchant. It would pay the city of Toledo to build good roads out into every tributary community.

In furtherance of the World's Fair project, Mr. Pope wrote Director-General Davis, suggesting the proposed exhibit and giving many forceful reasons for the usefulness and value of it. Mr. Davis turned his letter over to S. H. Peabody, chief of the department of liberal arts. In reply, Mr. Peabody said, while he was heartily in favor of the proposed display, he feared there was neither room on the grounds nor time for the construction of the building. He suggested that already the different branches of the work were grouped in different classes. Mr. Pope took the classified catalogue and finds that, in order to become conversant with the plans, machinery, material, systems, tools, etc., involved in this branch of needed improvement, the individual must visit five enormous buildings, which, with their annexes, cover over seventy-nine acres. The distances from some of these buildings to others, are long, and in crowded passages any but the determined enthusiast would grow disheartened and give up his search for information.

Mr. Pope's idea of grouping and systematizing all that pertains to this most important branch of material improvement is the correct one. As is wisely said, it will advance the movement a century. With such highways as the traveler rides delightedly over in France, England, Scotland, Ireland, Belgium and in all European countries, America would be the veriest garden of Eden on earth.

We are a rich people, a hustling, boastful, generous, ingenious and luxury-loving people, and the greatest disgraces of the country are dirty city streets and horrible country roads. It will be the first impression and the most lasting one made on our visitors from the old world. But an earnest of what we purpose doing would be shown by the proposed exhibit.

The Bee is with Col. Pope in his insistence that there is yet time, and room can be made in Jackson park if we have to do with fewer flower beds. The press of the whole country should take up the matter and voice the sentiment of the people.

The Big Boodle Exposition.

That is another name for the circus at Minneapolis. Vanderbilt's railroad president, whose record on the tunnel disaster, and whose "firm attitude" on the Webb strike, are well remembered, did the talking for "the dear people," telling them what they wanted and how they were going to get it. Col. Shepard, another man related to the Vanderbilt millions, got a chance for a chairmanship pro tem. of two or three minutes, and that meant money for the machine operators. The southern delegates, black and white, were bought and repurchased; that is an open page of history. Reed of Maine had the popularity and would have had the votes, but he is not yet a millionaire by birth, bounty or marriage. Reid of New York is the elected distributor of inherited millions. He got there. Mike de Young, of California, was mentioned for the place, and why? He has the millions of one of the subsidy-fed Pacific railroads behind him and his newspaper. If there was any man who got his finger in the pie, in a manner that squinted towards honors or high place, he was a millionaire whose cash was his qualification, or he stood for an equivalent pull; McKinley, for instance, who welcomed the representatives of the tribute-protected industries into his committee room and permitted them to tinker up a tax law on the people for their own benefit.

There was not a spark of honest patriotism or statesmanship exhibited from first to last. There was boodle, revenge, treachery, cunning and hypocrisy. Dispatches to Blaine papers averred that 200 office holders packed the convention for Harrison, and that his reliance was on moneyed persuasion. Perhaps this is what the Toledo organ had in mind when it said, a day or two after the convention, "it was the strongest nomination that could be made." These are its elements of strength. Knowing these things to be true, and having told them to the people, how can these organs advise their republican readers to support such a corrupt combination? After all, a convention led by railroad magnates, manipulated by tariff-fed monopolists assisted by an army of office holders, fitly represents the dominant wing of the republican party. How do the plodding toilers at home enjoy the spectacle?

Republican Heresy.

The Baltimore Sun calls attention to an unexpected and somewhat amusing contribution in the new Republican Magazine, from the pen of John S. Wise, republican candidate for governor of Virginia. Mr. Wise is a citizen of New York and his expressions are cited as "the northern views of a southern man." He tells his fellow republicans of the north, "there is no animosity in the south against the union." He gives one reason and one only, why the south is solidly democratic, while there are a half dozen reasons why it would be divided politically, were it not for the force of the one reason here mentioned: "the course of idiotic legislation, known as reconstruction." He speaks of the unwise precipitation of the question of negro suffrage, which united the otherwise antagonistic whig and democrat elements. He says, "the negroes were given the ballot and the whites were disfranchised." The bedlam of incompetency and confusion that followed united all property holders of the south irrespective of former party affiliations. "Self protection for home, family and property is the tie that binds the solid south. Force bills will only make the matter worse." These are the candidly expressed views of an able southern republican. In conclusion, Mr. Wise says:

As for the Harrison administration, it has inflicted deadly stabs upon republicanism in the south. It is beyond comparison the most sectional administration that has ever been in power. The south is no more a part of it than Hayti.

What will be done with this republican heretic in the approaching Harrison campaign?

Oklahoma, with its race war imminent, is not in the wicked South. It is a pet republican territory which was designed for a negroes' paradise. The negro cannot rule his own in Oklahoma or Liberia, and the persistence of his republican master that he shall rule the white population in various localities, makes a world of trouble.

Col. Shepard, who is related by marriage to the Vanderbilt millions was so tickled with the honor of sitting in McKinley's chair for five minutes, at the convention, he went home and paid $100 for fireworks, to tantalize the Blainiacs in his part of New York.

With all the other amusing things consequent upon the fight at Minneapolis, the laudation of McKinley because he didn't vote for himself, is funny enough. He gets beautifully scored for his complicity with Foraker in his "coup." Explanations do not explain.

The democratic convention, next week, in Chicago, has a noble opportunity to show, by contrast, what a convention of patriots and statesmen, inspired by love of country and desire to promote its welfare, is like.

One who knows, but who cannot just now tell how he knows, says it will be Cleveland and Gray, at Chicago. New York and Indiana again.

Silas B. Cobb has subscribed $150,000 for the Chicago University; another boost towards the million to be raised by the city, upon which Rockefeller's gift of a million is conditioned. Speaking of subscriptions, a New York paper tells how a solicitor collected quite a little sum for the Grant monument in a tenement house, where the wages of the men and women who live there average 30 cents a day. It was cited as a lovely illustration of how "the people" were building a monument to the war hero. The man who robbed the poor toilers of their pennies must have had a sneaking feeling in his breast.

The guardians of Westminster Abbey would better give themselvesc no further worry about the "memory of James Russell Lowell." It is shrined in the hearts of the world's lovers of good literature, without any foreign seal upon it. Mr. Andrew Lang, one of the committee, says, "if one American is thus honored, it will be hard to draw the line." It is well to congratulate ourselves that the strife is all English. No American is anxious to thus honor the Abbey.

A crusade against the sweating shops in Chicago is begun in good earnest. Four inspectors in two days have reported 200 shops where the law is violated. The city council will be memorialized to pass an ordinance compelling the house shops to register and take out license. This work is being done under the supervision of the health officer. Chicago has begun the work none too soon and other cities should follow the example.

The canvas roof of the Chicago democratic wigwam got torn into ribbons in the recent storm and a substantial wooden cover will be substituted. Good thing it happened when and as it did.

Since January 1 36 persons, or more than 1 per cent. of the entire population, have died in Waldboro, Me. Twenty-one were more than 80 years of age, six more than 90, and two lacked only a year of the century mark.

THEY WANT A DEED.

Wabash Elevator Company File an Answer

And Review the Case in All Its Points.

An Interesting Legal Complication That May Take a Long Time to Untangle.

The Bee announced some time ago that the Wabash Railroad company had brought action in common pleas court against the Toledo Wabash Elevator company to gain possession of the real estate on which the Wabash elevator No. 5 is erected, claiming all improvements, the elevator included, involving property to the value of over a million dollars.

The railroad company in its petition sets up that the elevator company had leased the property of the old Wabash, St. Louis & Pacific Railway company, for 99 years. It seems the road at the time was heavily encumbered and was subsequently sold by judicial sale to the present control of the road. The petition claimed that the lease became null and void, when the road was sold and the company demands its rights by virtue of the judicial sale.

There is always two sides to a question, and the elevator company filed its answer to the petition in common pleas court today.

It admits being in possession of the property described, but denies all other allegations of the plaintiff.

It further states that on April 26, 1880, the Wabash, St. Louis & Pacific Railway company was operating between Toledo and St. Louis, and that the land in question formed no part of this railroad or property of the company, but that on the contrary the land was then under water wholly unoccupied and unimproved, and entirely unnecessary to the railroad company for the transactions of its business and that the elevator company, after leasing the same, constructed valuable docks, an elevator building, which it has maintained ever since, under the contract.

The answer states further that on April 26, 1880, the Wabash, St. Louis & Pacific Railway company entered into a contract with the defendant at the railroad company's request whereby the elevator company should take charge of all the receiving, elevating and storage of grain and ship the same, which might be brought or delivered to the elevator company, by the railroad company, from its road and branches; the elevator company, in addition to the three elevators which it was operating, should by the terms of the contract erect a fourth at such place as the railroad company should designate, the capacity and manner of conducting and equiping the same being arbitrary with the railroad company.

The answer says that the railroad company as a part of the contract, agreed to deliver the grain to the elevator, and furnish site and ground necessary for the erection of the fourth elevator, together with suitable docks, and to cause the channel to be dredged to a sufficient depth to permit the ingress and egress of vessels sailing in the Maumee river, and to convey by lease the site to the elevator company for a period of 99 years, renewable forever, without further rent or consideration other than the terms of the contract required. It was agreed that the terms of the contract should continue for 99 years.

Upon the execution and delivery of the contract, about June 1, 1880, the company designated the real estate in question and the elevator company proceeded to erect an elevator that cost over $500,000, and proceeded to carry out and fulfill the terms of the contract.

The answer continues that the plaintiff knew of the existence of this contract and ratified the same, and in the contract covenanted and agreed.

That the defenant paid to the plaintiff on December 1, 1889, thes um of $12,407 rebates, commission and rents, and other sums which the railroad company accepted.

The defendant prays for a quit claim title to the property.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Morton at least did the republican ticket no harm. Whitelaw Reid will array against it the organized labor of the country.—Atlanta Journal.

McKinley cut a poor figure as presiding officer at Minneapolis. His intentions were honest, but the convention was too big to be handled by him. He lacked executive grasp. Fancy such a well-meaning incapable filling the highest executive office on earth, and beset continually by multitudinous mobs intent not merely to catch his ear for a moment, but to get a hundredfold as many offices out of him as congress in its liberality has ever created.—Philadelphia Record.

It is a cause for democratic jubilation that the battle for reform has been made so easy by the nomination of a man who is a typical representative of the pernicious principles of the republican party; whose good qualities are of too negative a character to satisfy the people, and whose personality cannot save the republican party from the defeat which has already been decreed against it. With the magnificent Grover Cleveland the democratic hosts will march to a certain and complete victory.—Altoona Times.

A great deal of wonder has been expressed at Gov. McKinley calling Col. Elliot F. Shepard to the chair when he stepped aside to move the making of Harrison's nomination unanimous. Of all men in the assemblage he had the weakest claim to be dangled out for the honor. But Depew was in command of the Harrison army of which McKinley professed to be a member; Depew represents the Vanderbilt interests and Col. Shepard married into the Vanderbilt interests. In the light of the Chicago republican paper's explanation of the way the Vanderbilts' railroad president bossed the convention for Harrison the action of McKinley in doing honor to a Venderbilt by marriage is no longer a mystery.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Mr. Watterson thinks that in an hour's speech he can tell the democratic party what it ought to do to be saved. Suppose the several hundred other delegates to Chicago should accept Mr. Watterson's advise and the party should be lost, how would the Kentuckian feel? In 1884 the party declined to tag after him and Cleveland was elected. Mr. Watterson ought to realize that the man who constitutes himself the mother-in-law of the democratic party has a very fine large job on his hands.—Memphis Appeal-Avalanche.

The republicans have found their logical candidate in Mr. Harrison. The democrats will follow with Mr. Cleveland. If there were any doubt as to the choice of the democrats the action of the Minneapolis convention would set it at rest. The nomination of Harrison on a platform reaffirming McKinleyism and straddling on the silver question makes it a necessity that battle shall be joined under a leader who is in himself a platform of tariff reform and honest money.—Boston Post.

McKinley did not open his mouth in protest against the action of delegates in voting for him until the state of Ohio was reached on the roll-call. He knew why his name was used at the last moment—why votes from state after state were being cast for him without the presentation of his name—but until Ohio was reached it did not occur to him to say a word defining his position. Ohio was the twenty-eighth state on the roll. Votes were cast for McKinley from the first state on the list—Alabama—and from fifteen others before Ohio was called upon. These votes were cast without exception by men whose first choice was Blaine and who voted for McKinley in the hope of starting a stampede to him from Harrison. Did the major endeavor to restrain them? Not a bit of it. He permitted the game to be worked for all it was worth, which was not much, as it turned out, and then tried to make it appear that the whole thing was against his wish.—Detroit Free Press.

The republican party has nothing to gain by a revival of the force bill agitation, and the judgment that is responsible for this plank in the Minneapolis platform is open to severe criticism. That the sentiment of the country is decidedly opposed to all legislation of this character has been demonstrated in a manner that ought to have precluded all possibility of the most remote reference to the matter in this year's platform, but the committee on resolutions made the mistake of heeding those who have not the judgment to recognize unpopular measures, and the party has been made to assume an unnecessary handicap, and one which the opposition will use for all it is worth.—Washington Post (Rep.).

LABOR TROUBLES

Workmen and Bosses Trying to Get Together.

Opechee, Mich., June 15.—A consultation between striking trammers and officials of the Osceola mine took place yesterday afternoon.

The officials agree to give the strikers $50 for 26 shifts, six shifts each week; also to discharge the objectionable boss. They would not return the men first discharged. The miners went down last night but the trammers did not agree to work, and may attempt to prevent the miners from going down to-day, in which case state troops will be called out. The company refuse to take back twelve of the leaders. Reports concerning the killing of Superintendent Daniel are false. There has been no violence for more than a week.

WON BY SUSPENDER.

London, June 15.—The Royal Hunt cup, handicap, at Ascot to-day, was won by Mr. McCalmont's 3-year old bay colt, Suspender, by Muncaster out of Garterless.

Suspender figured in only two races last year and won both of them. One was the Severals plate of 365 pounds and for 2-year-olds at Newmarket, in October, and the other was the Fitzwilliam plate of 485 pounds at Newmarket in April, 1891. In the Royal Hunt cup to-day High Commissioner, a bay or brown 5-year-old by Loyland Chief out of Constitution, was second and Stuart third.

CALLED IN THE POLICE.

Madrid, June 15.—Owing to an outbreak at Ferrot among men who until recently were employed in the naval yard at that place, the prefect of Corunna has gone there with a detachment of gendarmes to restore order. One of the chief Spanish arsenals is located at Ferrot.

TOLEDO METHODISTS.

District Conference Held at Weston.

Full Report of the Interesting Discussions by the Ministers.

Weston, O., June 15.—The Toledo District M. E. Conference opened here Monday.

The session began at 7:30 p. m. The first half hour was occupied in prayer and praise service, conducted by the presiding elder, Rev. P. P. Pope. Following this service Rev. D. F. Helms, of Wauseon, preached the opening sermon from Isa. 53d chapter and 13th verse.

Tuesday morning the conference convened at 8:30 a. m., devotional exercises being conducted by Rev. A. Hopkins, of Sylvania. Following the prayer service, Rev. P. P. Pope took the chair, and the secretary, Rev. J. C. Shaw, of Perrysburg, called the roll. About one-half of the pastors of the district were present, and a large number of laymen.

After the appointment of committees and the completon of the organization, Rev. Pope gave a very satisfactory report to the conference of his labors and the general condition of the work throughout the district. The pastors present followed with encouraging reports of their several charges.

Following the reports of pastors, the first paper on the literary program was read by Rev. N. S. Brackney, of West Toledo. The subject was: "The Necessity of Personal Religious Experience." The next on the program was the giving of brief sermon outlines by several young ministers.

Only two were given during the morning session, the first by G. A. Winter, of Lakeside, and the second by F. E. Hazell, of Tontogany. Both were well delivered and well received.

Following the first outline the following visiting ministers were introduced to the conference: Revs. W. S. Philpot, of Ottawa, and A. B. Leonard, of Fayette, both from the Defiance district, and Rev. Ralph W. Munson, of the Bengal conference in India.

The hour for adjournment having arrived, announcements were made, the doxology sung and the benediction pronounced by Dr. A. J. Fish, of Toledo.

The conference met at 1:30 p. m., Tuesday. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. G. M. Hunter, and consisted of singing, prayer and Scriptural reading.

At 2:15 the literary program was again taken up and Dr. Pope presented his paper "The General Conference and Its Work." He treated its work first negatively and secondly, positively. The address was both comlete and interesting, and greatly enjoyed by those who heard it. That which aroused most interest was his statements concerning the action of the general conference in reference to the admission of women as delegates to that body.

Various questions were asked and the paper was earnestly discussed by Dr. Fish. He very strongly condemned the action of the general conference on the woman question, characterizing it as a scheme and trick, and one that would retard the admission of women; and this seemed the feeling of the conference.

The time having arrived to take up another subject, the conference arose and sang, "O, for a Heart to Praise My God," and then Dr. Fish presented an able paper "The Bright Side of Humanity."

Following Dr. Fish's paper, the giving of brief sermon outlines by young local ministers was resumed.

Outlines were given by F. K. Gamble, W. S. Brackney and D. H. Jameson. The program was now changed and minute business was resumed.

It was moved and carried that the presiding elder appoint the committee on program for the next district conference.

The conference then proceeded to select the place for the next district conference, Bowling Green and Swanton were nominated and Bowling Green was selected.

The renewal of the licenses of local preachers was then taken up and completed in the usual manner.

Revs. Priddy and Fish were appointed a commitee on resolutions; and the presiding elder and the pastor of each charge were made a committee on the the plan of work for the local preachers and exhorters in each charge.

On motion the conference adjourned with the benediction by Rev. A. B. Leonard, of Fayette.

COMPANY ORGANIZED.

The Yost Institution Elects Directors and Officers.

They Decide to Erect Three More Buildings Instead of one as Announced--a Great Industry.

The Yost Manufacturing company, the particulars of the organization of which appeared in the Bee a week ago, promises to be a much larger concern than at first anticipated.

Mr. Yost, who at the meeting yesterday was elected general manager, proposes making it one of the greatest institutions of the kind in the country.

At a meeting of the stockholders held yesterday the following directors and officers were elected: President, FFitch Dewey; vice-president, E. W. Tolerton; secretary and treasurer, W. F. Dewey. These, with Mr. E. P. Breckenridge, compose the directory.

The directors decided to erect three buildings instead of one as at first announced.

This will make four buildings in all. The present works, formerly owned by the Toledo Nail company, is a commodious and substantial building and those proposed to be erected will be equally so.

All the capital stock has been subscribed and the company starts with every indication of success.

A CORRECTION.

Mr. Kauffman, whose son was killed in the unfortunate Sunday occurrence, feels wronged in what the Bee stated. Mr. Kauffman says that he did not refuse his son admittance to the house, and that it was only after the doctor so ordered, that he consented to have his son taken to the hospital. The correction is cheerfully made.

Captain Landgraf BoundOver to Court

To Answer for Carrying an Alien Crew.

Vessel Passages Through the Lakes and Rivers—All the Happenings Local and General.

Chicago, June 15.—(Special.)—Capt. Landgraf, of the schooner Ida Keith, charged with violating the alien law, had a hearing before United States Commissioner Hoyne yesterday. Judge Hand, of District Attorney Milchrist's office, prosecuted the case and Robert Rae appeared for W. G. Keih, the owner of the Keith, and Capt. Landgraf. Three of the union seamen who left Chicago on the vessel and were discharged with the others of the crew at Port Huron, testified to the fact of their discharge in Port Huron, May 19, and continued that Capt. Landgraf immediately called a tug and had the vessel towed across the river to Sarnia, Can., where he took on board a full crew of Canadian seamen. The penalty for violating the alien contract labor law on the part of the captain is a fine of $1,000 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. Neither the prosecutor or the defense seem to be exactly clear as to what is a violation of this law or what the law is itself and it was agreed that the captain be held to the grand jury in $4,800 bond, so hat the case may have a thorough hearing and the law be tested.

No point was raised as to the vessel carrying an alien mate. Capt. W. G. Keith signed Capt. Landgraf's bonds. When Capt. Landgraf left the commissioner's room he went immediately on board his vessel, which was lying at the Airline elevator, called a tug and proceeded on his voyage.

Shipping Master Biemel put a full crew, including mates, on board the Keith Monday night and remained on board with them until yesterday morning when he was relieved by an officer of the police force. The vessel was not molested by the Seamen's union.

CASE OF PRINCE MIKE.

The Evidence Against Him Was Damaging.

Miss Webster Has Changed Her Opinion About the Purity of the Israelites.

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 15.—The trial of Prince Michael was resumed this morning. When witness Bernice Bechel came into court she went into the seats apportioned off by ribbons, but the defense recalled her to the stand.

The defense complained to the court that the large committe of women, who were supposed to be present purely in the interest of social purity, had been conversing with the witness s for the prosecution, urging and encouraging them.

Last night they took charge of Bernice Bechel, although her own father and mother were here at the hotel, and in short that they seemed to be simply a committee for the prosecution.

Bernice was asked where she stayed last night, and replied, "I don't know." She also said that she did not learn the name of the woman at whose she stopped.

May Webster was the first witness called by the prosecution this morning. She repeated the story of her connection with the Israelites, which is already familiar, and testified to the fact that she was present when Eliza Court ordered Bernice Bechel to occupy the room with Prince Michael on the first occasion.

Miss Webster's testimony thoroughly sustained the charges of Bernice against Michael in so far as the fact that she was forced, on three different nights, to occupy the room with him was concerned. On cross-examination Miss Webster said that she did not believe in the religion so much as she once did.

Her evidence in the Richardson habeas corpus proceedings in the Wayne circuit court was recalled. On that occasion Miss Webster swore that she believed the Israelites to be pure and that Michael was a cleansed man.

"Did you believe what you said at that time was true," she was asked.

"I did; but Michael used to rub my hands every morning before going to court and I believe it gave me strength. I see thing sdifferently now that I am not under his power."

"Does Prince Michael teach anything except the Father, Son and Holy Ghost?"

"He teaches a great many things which I cannot see have any possible connection with holy things," was the firm reply.

Witness denied that she was forced to submit to a physical examination after her arrest, and said the examination was made, but at her own request. Miss Webster denied that any influence had been brought to bear upon her to induce her to testify against Prince Michael.

BOARDMAN & GRAY PIANOS

ESTABLISHED 1837.

Sold continuously since 1870 at 219 Summit Street.

This make, sold in large numbers for more than 21 years by a reliable house, recommended and indorsed by nearly all of the best musicians and teachers in Toledo, has become a formidable barrier to the sale of other first-class pianos offered by competing dealers and their agents, by reason of their constantly increasing sale and popularity. Competitors, alarmed and uneasy, resort to many unreasonable as well as untrue statements, which they work off on confiding individuals, and cause them to be circulated in this city and elsewhere. Among these old chestnuts, is the statement that "The Whitney & Currier company manufacture the Boardman & Gray, or have a proprietary interest in their manufacture, and are actuated by that interest, to praise their merit and push their sale." The first part of this statement is untrue. This company has no proprietary interest in the manufacture of any piano. It is actuated in recommending the Boardman & Gray piano by the same motives which actuate any honest individual in recommending that which he knows to be of superior merit, and also by the same motives any one would have in pushing the sale of any successful meritorious article in which a reasonable profit may be realized, and that which is true of Boardman & Gray in this respect, is true of other makes this company has for sale. The superior facilities the Whitney & Currier company has in purchasing, enable it to give greater value for a like sum of money than can be had of its competitors. No other house can show an equal line of first-class Pianos, nor the number from which to select in making a purchase. All are invited to call and see for themselves, whether wishing to buy or not.

NOW BE CAREFUL!

Mothers Have Cause to Fear Hot Weather.

Best of Food Needed in Every Ohio Town.

Exhausting Influences of June Weather.

End of an Investigation Teaches Wisdom.

Cause of Very Much Suffering During the Summer.

Mothers cannot be too careful about their babies' food from now on.

June is the beginning of summer, and everyone knows that summer's heat brings with it that dreaded disease, cholera infantum. And every physician knows and says that poorly fed infants easily succumb to it.

The food for infants, that the best physicians recommend, that thousands of mothers have tried and proved to be the purest and most nourishing of all, is lactated food.

It has saved the life of many a little one, and will accomplish an incalculable amount of good this coming summer. It has been more effective in preventing cholera infantum than any other means—whether medicine or food.

The living testimony of strong and healthy children who have been brought up on this food, gaining strength and spirits at once after beginning to eat it, when they had been ailing and fretting before—the evidence of the medical profession, supplemented by the good, straightforward words of happy parents, who say unhesitatingly that they owe their happiness to lactated food more than anything else—these proofs of the superiority of lactated food are enough.

It is the best food known for infants and invalids.

Statistics, as well as the observation of doctors, prove that there is no food on which infants of all classes thrive so well.

The statement made at the end of a recent investigation into the causes of cholera infantum that "infants fed on lactated food suffer less and fewer die than those fed on any other food," has been amply verified.

Mothers should thoroughly understand what this lactated food is, how pure and nourishing and how successfully it meets nature's requirements. It is a food which contains all the nutritive powers sufficient to develop the child's bone, muscle and fat, and which is digestible from the time of birth and nourishes as long as it is eaten.

Don't let the little ones suffer.

Don't take any chances in June.

The effects of sickness at this season may be felt for many months, even after the little one begins to mend.

So use this best of foods now.

It is probably used more generally in the families of physicians than in those of any other class of people.

BROKEN MEASURES.

Life is full of broken measures,
Objects unattained;
Sorrows intertwined with pleasures,
Losses of our costliest treasures,
Ere the height be gained.

Every soul has aspiration
Still unsatisfied;
Memories that wake vibration
Of the heart in quick pulsation,
At the gifts denied.

We are better for the longing,
Stronger for the pain;
Souls at ease are nature wronging:—
Through the harrowed soil come thronging
Seeds in sun and rain!

Broken measures, fine completeness
In the perfect whole;
Life is but a day in fleetness,—
Richer in all strength and sweetness,
Grows the striving soul.

STEVE SINGIN'.

"Yo' ain' nuvver hearn 'bout Steve, is you, honey?" asked Aunt Milly, and I could see that the old woman was just in the mood for telling me a story.

"No, who was Steve?" I asked with eager interest. "Tell me about him."

"Yo' knows I uster belong to Cun'l Stokes. Dey lib out heah in Henry county, not fur from town. When I wuz a right young gal, Steve an' me tuk a gre't likin' to one nudder. Steve wuz de likeliest nigger on de plantation. Ole Miss sez, tha warn' no reason 'tall why we shouldn't git married, bein' ez bofe o' us sich likely niggers. So one Chris'mas, an' 'twuz 'bout de col'es' Chris'mas I uvver see, ole Miss bake a gre't cake, an' Steve hed a new homespun suit, an' I hed a cal'co frock—yo' knows mighty few niggers hed cal'co in dem days—an' sich a dance ez we did hab! All de qual'ty niggers in Henry county wuz thar. Jo Johnson, he play de fiddle, an' call out 'change pardners,' ez sich nudder nigger in de state of Virginny ain' nuvver know how to do. I 'members well, Steve axe me, 'Milly, yo' 'spose any dem niggers at Millbrook uvver gwi' hab a weddin' like dis?' Millbrook, yo' knows, chil', wuz whar Mister Taylor lib, an' he dribe he niggers mighty hard. Bacon an' hoe-cake an' 'lasses 'bout de bes' any dem uvver see. Weddin's warn' no 'casion wid dem. My ole Mars'er wuz mighty clos' fisted, but 'twuz ole Miss always doin' sumfin' fur de niggers. She seem like she feel sorry 'bout thar bein' ez dey wuz, an' of'en I done hearn her sez, 'Asa, don' dribe 'em so hard. Dey's human bein's, yo' knows.'"

"But what about Steve. Tell me about him," I interposed.

"Law! yass, honey. Well, I s'pose me an' Steve wuz 'bout de bes' content'd niggers in Henry county. Couldn' nobody help l'ke Steve. I sees 'im now, so tall an' strong, gre't big nigger wid clean face—ches' jus' like a' ox, arms so strong, tek a bale o' hay an' pitch hit up de loi' an' nuvver know he done toch nuffin—monf full o' de whites' teeth I done uvver see—an' 'fo' Gord, I 'membre his voice like hearn hit yisttidy. We uster sing down at de quarters of a nights, an' mos' always de res' would drap 'way, an' leave hit all to Steve. He sing so low an' rich, jes' like de summer win' in de trees, an' seem like he always sorter sad too when he sing. Hit mek 'em all mighty quiet. I can't furgit dat nigger. I's tried mighty hard nigh on forty year, but thar ain't no use tryin'. When I thinks 'bout dem nights down at de quarters, an' Steve singin', an' all the todder niggers kinder lis'enin', skeered like, I feels like a gal agin', an' I jes' thinks, Steve sho' is somewhar 'bout."

"What became of Steve?" I asked.

"Yass, yass, honey!" she answered, recalled to the thread of her story. "Jes' thirteen months hit wuz things wen' mighty bad. Ole Miss, she tuk to her bed. Ole Marster, he hed troubles sho', fust wid dem boys. Dey wuz mighty wile, dem boys wuz, an' cos' ole Marster sight o' money fust an' last. An' den 'twuz 'scurity money. I ain' nuvver seen nuffin' l'ke de folks in Henry county fur pavin' 'scurity money, an' hit jes' bin de ruin o' ole Marster. Steve bein' sich a likely nigger, an' thar bein' no doubt 'bout 'im sellin' well, ole Marster sont 'im to Richmond, an' de nigger traders buyed 'im. I hed a baby den, jes' two days ole, an' Miss sez, 'Come what mout, she gwi' keep Milly sho', mek no diffunce 'bout nuffin'.' Ole Miss kep' me an' dat chile, but whar dem nigger traders kyar'y Steve an' sell 'im ain' none o' us nuvver know. Ole Miss sez, she wuz gwi' fine out, an' buy 'im back some day, but she didn' nuvver git well, an' thar warn' nobody alse nuvver thunk nuffin' 'bout hit."

"But you have children and grandchildren, Aunt Milly. Did you ever marry again?" I asked.

"'Twas a mighty long time, honey. Ole Marster try to mek me hab fust one nigger, den nudder, but I wuz mighty keen at gittin' scuses. Fust, I hed to nuss ole Miss; den dat chile o' mine tak sick, an' 'twuz full a year I wuz teken keer o' hit, an' den de po' thing ceasted, like ez ef I warn' to hab nuffin' o' Steve lef', an' den I did'n keer much, an' so I married one o' dem niggers overfrom Millbrook—William Lewis. He wuz a mighty good man, an' done mighty well by me, but ain' nuffin' nuvver mek me furgit Steve, an' dem nights he uster sing down at de quarters."—N. Y. News.

SAFE, SURE AND SPEEDY.

No external remedy ever yet devised has so fully and unquestionably met these three prime conditions as successfully as Allcock's Porous Plasters. They are safe because they contain no deleterious drugs and are manufactured upon scientific principles of medicine. They are sure because nothing goes into them except ingredients which are exactly adapted to the purposes for which a plaster is required. They are speedy in their action because their medicinal qualities go right to their work of relieving pain and restoring the natural and healthy performance of the functions of muscles, nerves and skin. OFF FOR EUROPE.

New York, June 15.—The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage embarked for Europe today on the Inman liner City of New York. After resting a few days in London he will make a preaching tour of England, Scotland and Ireland, to extend over about a couple of months, after which he will return to his pastorate in New York. Mr. E. S. Willard, the actor, is also among the passengers on the City of New York. He completed his American engagement in Boston a week ago, and is now going home for the summer. During his sojourn in England he will add several new plays to his repertory, and will return to this country in October next.

THE STORM IN GALVA.

It Left Death and Desolation in Its Wake.

Galva, Ill., June 15.—The worst storm that ever visited this part of the state struck this city at 7:45 last evening, carrying terrible destruction in its course and causing at least one death. August Olson being killed at his home in the south part of the town. The Free Methodist church was entirely demolished and the congregation imprisoned in its ruins, several being seriously injured.

It is miraculous that any of the occupants escaped with their lives. Many persons were hurt at their homes or upon the streets by flying debris. Hough's and Barnett's elevators are destroyed.

The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy roundhouse is demolished. The Hays planter factory was badly damaged and the Mulford heater factory partly demolished. The Union rink is a complete wreck; the Baptist church spire is laying across the street.

The Jones block, Palmer and Walker, Howe, Webb & Mink agricultural buildings are wrecks. The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy depot and Rock Island and Peoria depot were all more or less injured while the damage to fruit and shade trees is immense. It is wonderful that the loss of life is so small.

IN WICHITA.

The People's Party State Convention in Session.

Wichita, Ks., June 15.—The state convention of the people's party is in session here to-day for the purpose of nominating a congressman-at-large, a full state ticket, and delegates to the national convention to be held in Omaha in July.

The total number of delegates is 560, representing every section of the state. A large number of democrats are here trying to induce the third party people to nominate Attorney General Ives for governor. The rank and file of the people's party are fighting Ives' nomination, notwithstanding that in 1890, when he ran for his present office as the nominee of both the people's party and the democrats, he carried the state by a majority of over 40,000. The democrats are also asking the third party to support David Overmeyer for congressman-at-large as the combine candidate against ex-Gov. Anthony.

THE FLYING ROLL PRINCE

He is Now on Trial at Ann Arbor.

University Students Fill the Court Room

And There is Much Excitement Over the Case—Some Ann Arbor People Don't Like It.

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 14.—Prince Michael went out for a long drive this morning, accompanied by Sheriff Dwyer. The prince has grown pale during his long confinement.

The scene in the court room previous to the opening of proceedings this morning was unique. The entrance doors were closely guarded by a couple of vigilant deputy sheriffs. Half a dozen motherly looking women were engaged dividing off three of the front seats with streaming white ribbons. This proceeding had a deep significance. The women were members of the local W. C. T. U., and were preparing to occupy seats in a body to encourage Bernice Bechel and the other girl witnesses to stick to their stories. Previous to the opening of court a large body of these women, young and old, filed in and filled the space apportioned to them.

When the court room doors were opened about 9 o'clock a large and irrepressible crowd of students burst through them and filled the large interior in the twinkling of an eye. The reported efforts on the part of the Christian element at Ann Arbor to exclude them had evidently miscarried.

There is much suppressed excitement among the godly and moral residents of the city regarding what they term the injustice of having so highly a sensational proceeding, of which they have no direct connection, thrust upon them. Last week three prominent clergymen, on behalf of a committee, wrote letters of appeal to the attorneys in the case, begging them to present the case as mildly as possible. The prosecution promised to be as decent in their methods as a proper presentation of the facts would warrant.

These clergymen called on the lawyers since their arrival and made a strong appeal for a high order of morality in trying the case. They also asked that representatives of the press be prohibited from writing sensational reports. When the lawyers said they could do nothing in this matter they said they would appeal to the court.

The court room was crowded when the case opened and the first move of the defense was to ask the court to order that witnesses for the defense be paid for at the expense of Washtenaw county. In support of this the leading attorney for the defense went on the stand and swore that Prince Michael had not a cent and that his own services were donated and purely charitable. He said that some of the expenses were coming out of his own pocket.

He testified that for his preliminary work he had received $300; that all Prince Michael's ready money, amounting to $600 or $700, had been taken away from him and that now he was destitute. The court ordered that the expense of subpoenaing the witnesses for the defense be paid by Washtenaw county.

The defense made a strong point of the fact that Bernice Bechel and her associate witnesses were not taken to the county jail upon their arrival in Ann Arbor. "The officers have evidently established a private jail of their own out here, where we can have no access to their witnesses," was the charge. "We ask to be able to see and speak with them freely."

"While I think, personally, that you should be allowed to see these witnesses," replied Judge Kinne, "yet I do not think I have authority to interfere with the Detroit police department in that regard."

Some difficulty was experienced in securing an unbiased jury, but at 11 o'clock both sides of the case announced their satisfaction and the jurors were sworn.

Assistant Prosecutor Springer opened the case, going over its history in great detail, beginning with the meeting of Michael and Bernice Bechel during an Israelitish revival meeting at Sarnia, Ont., and ending with the alleged terrible wrong to the girl in Detroit.

The address was graphic and tellingly delivered. The general opinion was that it was a telling opening and the jurors were visibly impressed. At one or two points a visible murmur of indignation against Michael was audible from the students, but it was quickly suppressed by the court officers.

The first order of business for the afternoon session was the outline of their plan of battle by the defense. A strenuous effort was made to excite sympathy for Michael on the ground that he was a victim of prosecution on account of his peculiar religious views. The career of the prince was outlined from boyhood. He was classed as a man of great private benevolence, correct in morals and exceptional in conduct. The tenets of his religious belief were eloquently explained. The opening address of the defense occupied the greater part of the afternoon.

FATHER MOLLINGER,

The Great Healer of Other People,

Himself Stricken Down—The Sun' Rays Were Too Much for Him.

Pittsburg, June 14.—Last year the day after St. Anthony's day was a great healing day at Mt. Troy. It is different this year. Father Mollinger was prostrated yesterday afternoon by the excessive heat, and the announcement that he would not to-day be able to bestow his blessing or prescribe for the afflicted was a sore disappointment to many who at great expense and bodily suffering had taken up their abode upon the mount.

The number of afflicted was, however, much smaller than on previous anniversaries. Father Mollinger caused it to be announced that on to-day Father Mayer would bestow his blessing and apply the sacred relics of St. Anthony to the afflicted. The latter, however, do not seem to have entertained much faith in the venerable priest's substitute, and this morning finds Mt. Troy deserted, the sufferers having returned to their homes, some in disgust, others in much pain, but the majority in carriages and other conveyances.

FAST TRAINS.

The New York Central to do the Hustle Act.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 14.—Commencing Monday, June 27, the New York Central will place in service a new fast train from Buffalo to New York to be called "the eastbound Empire state express." The train will have the same equipment as the "westbound Empire express," a combination buffet smoking car, two of the new and elegant coaches seating 72 passengers each and a buffet drawing room car. It will leave Buffalo at 1:15 p. m. daily except Sunday; Rochester 2:40 p. m. Syracuse 4:15 p. m., Utica 5:20 p. m., Albany 7:15 p. m., reaching Grand Central station New York at 10:30. No extra fare on this train.

LOCOMOTIVE EXPLOSION

On the Grand Trunk Railroad—Three Men Probably Killed.

Detroit, June 14.—A special to the News from Port Huron, Mich., says: Engine No. 29 on the Grand Trunk railroad hauling a heavily loaded freight train, blew up at Climax early this morning. Engineer Wood, Fireman Smith and Brakeman Parker, all of Battle Creek, were probably fatally scalded. The track was torn up and several cars thrown from the track.

NATIONAL HOUSE.

Washington, June 14.—When the house was called to order the diplomatic and consular bill was sent to conference, and then Mr. Tillman, of South Carolina, announced the sudden death last night of his colleague, Hon. E. T. Stackhouse.

The customary resolutions of respect were adopted and the speaker announced the appointment of the following funeral committee to accompany the remains to Little Rock, S. C.:

Messrs. Tillman (S. C.), Lanham (Tex.), Cate (Ark.), Lewis (Miss.), Shell (S. C.), Jolly (S. D.), and Waugh (Ind.). The house then, as a further remark of respect, adjourned until to-morrow.

STEAMER BLOWN UP.

London, June 14.—A Paris dispatch says that the steamer Petrolia, with petroleum from Philadelphia, was blown up at Bordeaux to-day and it is feared that 20 of the crew perished. The explosion was followed by fire which destroyed the vessel.

A thunder storm was prevailing at the time the explosion occurred and the disaster was caused by lightning striking the vessel.

WORLD'S FAIR.

Washington, June 14.—The American Institute of Homeopathy to-day adopted a resolution for the appointment of a committee of five to take into consideration matters in connection with the world's Columbian exposition.

LOOKING TO CHICAGO.

Unusual Interest in the Convention

Which is to Nominate the Next President.

An Illinois Delegate-at-Large Talks on the Possibilities—Favors Cleveland and Gray.

Chicago, June 15.—(Special.)—In order to throw some light, if possible, into the future of the democratic national convention that convenes here next week, a reporter induced an Illinois delegate-at-large to give his views in detail as to the most likely candidates. This was accomplished with the pledge that his name would not be made public, and that agreement is, of course, carried out, but the reader versed in the situation to any extent will easily recognize the man by his style. He said:

"My judgment is that it will settle down to Cleveland and Gray. We will open our campaign in a whirlwind and conclude in a calm. We will begin with a strong and bitter factional fight and end united and harmonious. The great Cleveland delegation from New York will not make much of a fight. It will parade here rather as a moral force, and its conduct will be such as to show Cleveland's great strength without antagonizing Tammany or Hill to any great extent. I don't believe they will make a very bitter fight for seats and votes in the convention. Their case will be laid before the national committee and the committee on credentials in a dignified way. That will be all.

"Cleveland is the undisputed leader of the national democracy, and he is the father of the live issues of the party. He will prove to be the choice of more than two-thirds of the delegates on the first ballot, and that without counting one from New York. You see I do not count on seating a single Cleveland delegate from New York, but I do expect that Tammany will do the right thing in the convention after all. A surprise is in store on that point. At any rate the policy of the other states will be to throw the responsibility of carrying New York on New York democrats and not to interfere in the fight there at all. The effort will be to convince the regular New York delegation that Cleveland is the first and last choice of the other states, and that will be done. Oh, yes, Cleveland will be nominated.

"Gray, of Indiana, will be named for second place on the ticket, and this is the reason for that: Gray can beat Harrison in Indiana. We will all be thoroughly convinced on that point before the convention is called to order. It is well known that Harrison is weakest in his own state. The strong opposition delegation sent from Fort Wayne and other points in Indiana to Minneapolis shows that. Harrison could not carry his home county in 1888 and he cannot carry his state in 1892 against Gray. We can capture Indiana this time much easier than we can Iowa, or Wisconsin or Michigan. Hence Gray will be named over either Boies, or Palmer or Vilas.

"About Morrison? Well, I will tell you. He is a strong man. If Cleveland is ever out of the race he will be second man. He has the south with him, and fully half of the Illinois delegation. A fine trick was played in Springfield at the April convention. Nearly all of Cleveland's apparent friends there were Morrison men in disguise. That is true even of Goudy. The southern Illinois delegates dropped into the scheme and talked for Cleveland, but they meant Morrison. Some of Palmer's staunchest friends were in the swim. The result is that Morrison captured half of the Illinois delegation, but these gentlemen are handicapped by instructions for Cleveland, so that Morrison can only figure as a second choice.

"By the way, I'll let you into a secret, or, rather, a mystery. There has been a bad break for Palmer in Illinois. I can not now tell you the cause, but some of his strongest supporters, the men who managed his splendid campaign at Springfield, have dropped him. That is true of Crafts.

"Sherwood Dixon, of Lee county, who was the lieutenant of Crafts in the great fight for Palmer at Springfield, is out for Morrison. He doesn't want Palmer. And you will find that Senator O'Conor, of La Salle, doesn't want him either. I could go on and give you a list of names showing a serious break from Senator Palmer, and you ask, why? All I can say is that something has happened. It is likely all to come out before the convention is over. Palmer has put his foot in it, but he is for Cleveland, anyhow.

"About Flower? Yes, he would make a good candidate ,but he is young, and can wait. He could carry New York, but would not be as strong in the west as Cleveland or Morrison. He has large railroad interests and is wealthy and popular and would make a good president, but if Cleveland is not nominated it will go to a western man. Flower would in that case be the first choice for vice president; but he would scarcely accept the honor. Boies and Flower would be a winning ticket, but it is useless to speculate, for Cleveland will head the ticket.

"As to Boies, he is too new to the democratic fold, and there is nothing sure about his being able to carry Iowa. Besides, he would lose New York. In fact, he would not be acceptable in the east. No, it will not be Boies."

REPAIRING THE WIGWAM.

Secretary Sheerin Says All Damages Will Soon be Mended.

Chicago, June 15.—Simon P. Sheerin, secretary of the national democratic committee, arrived in Chicago and went at once with Col. Bright, sergeant-at-arms, to view the situation at the wigwam.

But Gen. Winston had preceded Mr. Sheerin to the wigwam, and when the latter got there he found a full army of workmen replacing the roof that had been blown down. They were extending the roof toward the center and preparing to truss a dome roof over the center space, and the work was already so well under way that it did not take ten minutes to satisfy the secretary of the national committee that the great structure would be ready to seat the multitudes that will be ready to crowd into it Tuesday next.

When Secretary Sheerin was seen a few minutes later at parlor Q in the Palmer he was dictating letters to his private secretary.

"I'm glad to see you," he began. "Come often. The public is interested in our work and can know of its progress only through the newspapers. I find the accident to the wigwam was quite serious, but it was a small matter here in Chicago. Why, Gen. Winston had an army of workmen replacing the roof at the break of day. You Chicago people beat anything I ever met. Yes, the wigwam will be ready in time and in grand shape. I have no trouble on that score.

"Chairman Brice? He will be here on Friday, I hope, but he may not reach Chicago until Saturday. The national committee holds a conference on Friday with the local committee on arrangements and we will finish up all the odds and ends of business between the national and local bodies then. I expect a full attendance of the committee, though Mr. Brice may not get here in time. If he does not he will probably be the only absentee. We have one vacancy on the committee, owing to the death of C. A. Broadwater, of Montana. That vacancy will be filled, but I do not know at present who will be the man.

"About contests?" he continued. "We will have very few. And then you know the democratic national committee never undertakes to settle contests and make up a list of delegates for the convention like the republican committee does. We do business on democratic principles. The convention has all to say about the contests through its committee on credentials. I do not anticipate any delay on that score."

"Is this hot enough for you?" is a silly question; but if you meet a man who complains of suffering from the heat, ten to one you will find, on inquiry, that he does not use Ayer's Sarsaparilla to tone up his system and free his blood from irritating humors.

MADE IT LEGAL.

Upper Sandusky, O., June 15.—(Special.)—The announcement was made to the council last evening that the Upper Sandusky board of health is an illegal body, owing to the fact that an ordinance creating it now never passed by the council. The council immediately adopted the required ordinance.

WAKE UP.

If you wake up in the morning with a bitter or bad taste in your mouth, Languor, Dull Headache, Despondency, Constipation, take Simmons Liver Regulator. It corrects the bilious stomach, sweetens the breath and cleanses the furred tongue. Children as well as adults sometimes eat something that does not digest well, producing Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Restlessness, or Sleeplessness—a good dose of Regulator will give relief. So perfectly harmless is this remedy that it can be taken by the youngest infant or the most delicate person without injury, no matter what the condition of the system may be. It can do no harm if it does no good, but its reputation for 40 years proves it never fails in doing good.

... YOU WONDER ...

How we can sell so Artistic Custom Made Clothing so Cheap.

... WE WONDER ...

If the leading custom tailors through the land imagine that the political economy theory of supply and demand is centered in our institution. But just so long, in their anxiety, the season advancing, that they continue to send us uncalled-for garments, at prices which in some cases would hardly cover the price of the cloth, and as long as the people of Toledo and vicinity appreciate these bargains, the rule of supply and demand will continue to be equivalent with us.

These Are a Few of the Late Arrivals.

For $10.00 All-Wool Cassimeres, Cheviots and Tweeds, dark and light colors, plain and fancy patterns in both sacks and frocks. When you see them you will say yourself that they could not have been made to order for less than $22 to $28.

For $12.00 Serges, Worsteds, Whip Cords, Cassimeres, Cheviots, in all shades and textures, Sack and Frocks. A customer who bought one Monday said he paid his tailor $32.00 last spring for the same kind of material.

For $15.00 Unfinished and Clay Worsteds, Diagonals, Wales, Checks, Plaids, all weaves and colors, many are made of imported goods, but the McKinley bill has not affected these suits, for it takes but little tin to buy them of us. England, with her cheap labor would charge more.

For $18.00, $20.00, $25.00, $30.00 Prince Alberts, Dress Suits, imported goods in Sacks and Frocks. Silk and satin-lined, half-lined, skeleton back, lined top and unlined bottom, etc. These suits are the finest that are made by merchant tailors.

Pants $2.50 to $9. Made for double the money.

SPRING OVERCOATS $10.00 to $30.00

How does 10 per cent. off strike you? Say! We want to sell what we have left.

IN TRADING CIRCLES.

Both at Our Home and Abroad.

Wheat Quotations for the Day—Price Currents for Produce and Other Articles.

Wheat closed practically the same as the day previous after an opening of about a cent lower. As the day progressed the market slowly advanced with moderate trading to 84c for July and 82 1-4c for August. The hot winds of Kansas were blowing themselves again, and this with the firmness in corn caused by the light stock of contract corn at Chicago assisted materially in the advance. A sale of 30,000 barrels of flour was reported from Minneapolis at an advance of 6d over yesterday.

Beerbohm closes wheat futures flat and 1-2@1 1-4d lower. Corn, 1-2@3-4d lower.

Paris wheat 10@20 centimes higher. Flour, 20 centimes lower. London quotations of California wheat 3@6d lower. Exports, including 22,000 packages of flour, were 245,000 bu.

Cash wheat sales at 86 1-4@86 1-2c, closing at 86 1-2c bid. June same as cash. July opened on call at 82 3-4c, selling afterwards to 84c, and closing at 83 3-4c. August sales from 81 to 82 1-4 to 81 7-8c at close. No. 3 soft neglected. No. 4 soft sales at 81 1-2c L. S. After change No. 1 rejected sales at 76c.

Democrats Have Hopes of Carrying Minnesota.

St. Paul, Minn., June 15.—It was learned last night from Michael Doran, the Minnesota member of the democratic national committee, and William M. Campbell, chairman of the Minnesota state committee, that all negotiations for fusion with the alliance, or People's party, are at an end, and that there will be no union on either the electoral or the state ticket.

It is announced that this action is taken because a poll of the state shows that the democrats are likely to have a plurality this fall with three tickets in the field.

Mr. Darsie Trent, a popular salesman in the dress goods department at Lamson's, was married yesterday in Chicago, to Miss May Lambert, formerly of Fostoria. Miss Lambert has been teaching school in Boone, Ia., and met her affianced at the home of friends in Chicago, where the ceremony took place. Mr. and Mrs. Trent will be at home in Toledo after July 15, at 2014 Ashland avenue. They are expected in the city Saturday next. The Bee extends congratulations.

Yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, at the East Toledo Methodist church, occurred a very pretty wedding, that of Miss Hattie Valentine, a well known and popular lady, to Mr. William Godfrey. The bride was prettily attired in a gray costume, trimmed in pearl and chiffon, and carried bride's roses. Last evening a reception was held at the bride's home. The decorations both at the church and house were beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey have the best wishes of a host of friends. They will be at home after July 1 on Pratt street, East Toledo.

Miss Belle Offers was delightfully surprised by a party of young friends, who dropped down on her unexpectedly at her home, 718 Orchard street. Among those present were: Jennie Odell, Maud Ansell, Ella Crawford, Gertrude Ansell, Jessie Gilmore, Della Reid, Mattie Arndt, Pearl Munger, Kitty Nolan, Bessie Chalat, Lizzie Crawford and May Chalat, Messrs. Scott Owen, August Hagemeister, Timothy Meagher, Burt Owen, Robert Williams, Ed. Meagher, Howard Ansell, Joe McGinnis, Ed. Dunbar, Jay Westfield, Joe Chalat, Will Neubert and

FIVE MEN DROWNED.

New Orleans, June 15.—The ferryboat crossing Bayou Lafourche at Napoleonville Monday night overturned and precipitated the 12 persons on board into the water. It was so dark that it was impossible to give the men any assistance and five of the 12 were drowned. They were: Edward Schneider, Jacob Nardilly, an unknown Italian, Robert Atkins, and a negro, name unknown.

HEALTHY. HAPPY. WHY?

Is he a bright child? Does he look healthy and happy? He is bright, and he both healthy and happy. He is the little son of Mrs. Henry T. Bowers, wife of the well-known contractor and builder, who resides in Dorchester avenue, South Boston. Mrs. Bowers has had quite an experience with her children, which experience we give in her own words, as follows:

"I have a little boy two and one-half years of age, the perfect picture of rugged health, and also a little girl of four. I attribute their good health and good temper to the use of Dr. Hand's Remedies.

I have used, as occasion required, the entire line, and have had very marked results from the Colic Cure, Cough and Croup Medicine, and the Pleasant Physic. I have never had any but good result from the use of any of them."

No mother would make a statement like the above unless she knew wholly whereof she affirmed.

A little book, illustrated, full of sense and suggestion, will be sent to any one in the land, FREE.

CAPSIZED.

A Steamer Drowns Part of Her Passengers.

Bangor, Me., June 15.—A violent wind storm swept over this section late yesterday afternoon. The steamer Annie, carrying from 16 to 20 passengers, was capsized within a thousand feet of her wharf. Through the heroic efforts of Engineer Gerry and James Callahan, a passenger, 15 persons were saved.

One body, that of Madeline Adams, 18 years of age, has been recovered. It is believed that five persons in all were drowned. The captain is the only man who knows how many persons were on board and his condition is such that he is unable to tell.

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS.

An order has been received from the treasury department assigning to the officers of the customs department duties under the immigration bill. They have been authorized to employ all custom immigration officers assigned to them in the enforcement of the customs and immigration law and all such officers are designated and authorized to act both as custom and immigration officers. They will look after the alien contract labor. This does not, however, interfere with the duties devolving upon the revenue department handling the Chinese question.

DOWN WITH A CRASH.

Licking River Bridge Gives Way.

Sixteen Dead Bodies Already Taken Out of the Ruins—Names of the Dead.

Cincinnati, O., June 15.—The false work of the new bridge over the Licking river between Covington and Newport, Ky., fell this morning.

A telephone message from Newport confirms the report of 30 lives lost by the bridge falseworks accident. The falsework is gone from pier to pier, 16 bodies having already been taken out.

Assistant Superintendent Wm. Wilson is badly hurt, probably fatally. His back is broken and he is otherwise injured. Wm. Flack, of 118 West Third street, Covington, is hurt about the head. John O'Neil, of 11 East Lemon street, leg broke, internally injured and is dying.

The false work was erected by Baird Brothers, of Pittsburg, at their own risk. They were putting in the iron beams for the floor when the weight caused the false work to give way, carrying with it the workmen, about 30 in number.

The civil engineer who was in charge of the work is James A. Stewart, of Cincinnati, but he was not there at the time. The bridge was being built by the Kenton and Campbell County Bridge company.

A complete list of names of the victims cannot be obtained as yet.

SEARCHING THE WOODS.

A Posse Looking for an Unknown Man.

Defiance, O., June 15.—(Special.)—A party of 56 men from Leipsic visited this city yesterday. They were in search of the wretch who had atttempted the fiendish assault upon Mrs. John Ginther, of Maderia.

Maderia is a small village several miles west of Leipsic and the Ginther family live about half a mile from it. The outrage was attempted Saturday night, but the brute was frightened away, after beating the woman into insensibility, by a horse which was loose in the yard stepping on a board and breaking it.

A band of 22 Turks were in the vicinity at the time, armed heavily with Winchesters. They traveled in wagons and had a number of performing bears. They were oddly dressed, all the men wearing white hats of a peculiar shape. Mrs. Ginther identified her assailant as being a rough looking man, wearing a white hat nad having a peculiar cast in his eye.

John Ginther has offered a reward of $50 for the capture of the scoundrel.

There is much excitement here over the affair.

FREMONT NEWS.

Toledo's City Auditor to Join the Benedicts.

Fremont, O., June 15.—(Special.)—Miss Fannie Thompson, one of Fremont's fairest young ladies, and also well-known in musical circles, will be married to James H. Pheatt, city auditor of Toledo, Tuesday evening, July 5. They will make their home in Toledo.

The 26th annual commencement of the Fremont High school will be held at the Grand Opera house to-night. Eight gentlemen and five young ladies will then be ushered into the world.

THE LATE JUDGE COWAN.

St. Marys, O., June 15.—(Special.)—The obsequies of the late Judge C. W. Cowan were conducted in this city yesterday and his remains laid to rest in Elm Grove cemetery.

A prominent horseman says that a horse can conveniently eat 24 hours every day, the reason being that "its stomach is really small in proportion to the size of its body, and, therefore, it requires feeding often, not less than four times a day, two of which should be early in the morning and at night, while hay in the stall should be always be within its reach."

Dan Lamont ten years ago used to learn about $15 a week, and thought he was doing pretty well at that. Now, it is said, he gets $100,000 a year, and, probably, isn't satisfied with that sum.

The usual written examinations given at the close of the school term will be omitted this year and the pupils will be promoted on their daily work during the year.

The Humane society would better delegate someone besides Mr. France to shoot its horses. A poor sun-stricken beast was tortured for an hour yesterday by being used for a target, because the agent didn't know how to shoot to kill.

It was decided at last night's meeting of the Humane society to have the office closed between the hours of 12 and 1. Mr. Brown considered this more necessary, since the infirmary office is closed afternoons.

The following order was received by Fred Adams & Son for Barnum's circus, which will be here July 23, and gives an idea of the amount of feed consumed in one day: 6 tons of hay, 5 tons of straw, 200 bushels of oats and 50 bushels of shelled corn.

Machinists' union No. 11, met at Turley's hall last night and accepted the invitation extended to them by the International association to attend the excursion of Cleveland, Dayton, Detroit, and Sandusky machinists to be given on July 4. At its next meeting the machinists will elect two delegates to the national machinists' union to be held next fall at Minneapolis.

DREADFUL PSORIASIS.

Covering Entire Body with White Scales. Suffering Fearful. Cured by Cuticura.

My disease (psoriasis) first broke out on my left cheek, spreading across my nose, and almost covering my face. It ran into my eyes, and the physician was afraid I would lose my eyesight altogether. It spread all over my head, and my hair all fell out, until I was entirely bald-headed; it then broke out on my arms and shoulders, until my arms were just one sore. It covered my entire body, my face, head, and shoulders being the worst. The white scabs fell constantly from my head, shoulders, and arms; the skin would thicken and be red and very itchy, and would crack and bleed if scratched. After spending many hundreds of dollars, I was pronounced incurable. I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using two bottles CUTICURA RESOLVENT, I could see a change; and after I had taken four bottles, I was almost cured; and when I had used six bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, one box of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, I was cured of the dreadful disease from which I had suffered for five years. I can not express with a pen what I suffered before using the REMEDIES. They saved my life, and I feel it my duty to recommend them. My hair is restored as good as ever, and so is my eyesight.

A WIDOW'S SHREWD DEAL.

She and Her Daughter Live Aboard Steamships, Visiting All Parts of the World.

A New York widow has gotten ahead of the Inman steamship line in a way that the company must despise. She owned a narrow strip of land which the company wished, and of course she asked an outrageous price for it. A compromise was finally reached. She offered to deed the land if the company would in return agree to give to her and her two daughters, as long as she lived, free passage upon the steamers of the line.

As she was an elderly lady the company agreed to it. This was in 1889. Ever since then the lady and her daughters have lived aboard the company's steamers, and as they have run vessels to nearly all of the principal parts of the world she travels wherever she wishes. Hereafter the company will doubtless keep in mind the advice of Tony Weller.

DRY GOODS TAGS AS DETECTIVES.

He had just bought a pair of suspenders in one of the big dry goods stores, some one had tied it up and he was leaving the store, pleased with his purchase and with himself, says the N. Y. Herald. Suddenly he felt a hand on his shoulder—that of the man to whom he had just paid fifty-three and a half cents for the suspenders.

"Please come back," said the clerk, "I forgot to take the tag off."

"It's a rule of the store," he explained when asked what it all meant, "that the tag thall be taken off everything as soon as it is purchased. If an article with a tag on is found on a person in the store we know that it is stolen and it is very likely that the person will be arrested."

"But I might have been arrested," objected the suspenders buyer, "and still I didn't steal the article."

"No system is perfect," replied the clerk, tearing off the tag and handing back the package. "We aim at infallibility, but may be don't always hit the bull's eye. I don't think our tag scheme is such a brilliant one as its inventor supposes. Some time a clerk will leave a tag on, the customer will be arrested and then some one will have to pay damage. In my opinion the only way to convict a thief in a dry goods store is to see him do his stealing. You can't do it on the bell punch plan."

AN INTERESTING EPITAPH.

There are lots of tablets in Middlesex county, Mass., which recall men who lived and died like heroes 117 years ago. One of them, that of Fisk's Hill, Lexington, reads, for instance:

At this well, April 19, 1775,
James Hayward, of Acton,
met a British soldier,
who raising his gun, said:
"You are a dead man."

"And so are you," replied Hayward. Both fired; the soldier was instantly killed and Hayward mortally wounded.

He died on the following day. While life was ebbing away, he said to his father:

"Hand me my powder-horn and bullet pouch. I started with one pound of powder and forty balls. You see what is left. I never did such a forenoon's work before."

Many similar bronze plates bearing interesting historical inscriptions are set into stone walls, famous houses, etc., in and about Concord, and add immensely to the pleasure and instruction of the visitor.
